a remarkably fine work of creative scholarship c vann woodward new york review of books in 1860 when four million african americans were enslaved a quarter million others including william ellison were free people of color but ellison was remarkable born a slave his experience spans the history of the south from george washington and thomas jefferson to robert e lee and jefferson davis in a day when most americans black and white worked the soil barely scraping together a living ellison was a cotton gin maker a master craftsman when nearly all free blacks were destitute ellison was wealthy and well established he owned a large plantation and more slaves than all but the richest white planters while ellison was exceptional in many respects the story of his life sheds light on the collective experience of african americans in the antebellum south to whom he remained bound by race his family history emphasizes the fine line separating freedom from slavery the unity of religious ideals may lead you straight on the path to your ideal discover for you the religion in whatever form it may appear waken in yourself the longing for the light and the goal and thus you may find the self like a pearl hidden in the shell of your heart in six parts the whole field of religion is covered from the point of view of the mystic the philosophy of religion the concept of god and the god ideal the spirit of guidance and the spiritual hierarchy then various religions and messengers are discussed followed by a presentation of some religious symbols and their explanation finally the concept of the divine message is presented followed by an exposition of the role of universal sufism and what contribution it can give to the development of the individual and of humanity at large all religions are essentially one since there is only one god and one truth it cannot be otherwise this is one of the principal tenets of sufism and is one of the most important elements of hazrat inayat khan's message fritz haber a nobel laureate in chemistry a friend of albert einstein a german jew and world war i hero may be the most important scientist you have never heard of the haber bosch process which he invented at the turn of the twentieth century revolutionized agriculture by converting nitrogen to fertilizer in quantities massive enough to feed the world the invention has become an essential pillar for life on earth some two billion people on our planet could not survive without it yet this same process supplied the german military with explosives during world war i and haber orchestrated germany's use of an entirely new weapon poison gas eventually haber's efforts led to zyklon b the gas later used to kill millions including haber's own relatives in nazi concentration camps haber is the patron saint of guns and butter a scientist whose discoveries transformed the way we produce food and fight wars his legacy is filled with contradictions as was his personality for some he was a benefactor of humanity and devoted friend for others he was a war criminal possessed by raw ambition an intellectual gunslinger enamored of technical progress and driven by patriotic devotion to germany he was instrumental in the scientific work that inadvertently supported the nazi cause a jew and a german patriot he was at once an enabler of the nazi regime and its victim master mind is a thought provoking biography of this controversial scientist a modern faust who personifies the paradox of science its ability to create and to destroy it offers a complete chronicle of his tumultuous and ultimately tragic life from his childhood and rise to prominence in the heady days of the german empire to his disgrace and exile at the hands of the nazis from early decades as the hero who eliminated the threat of starvation to his lingering legacy as a villain whose work led to the demise of millions
