Sharing her personal experience of searching for rest in her own life, Jane Harper Ibt illustrates that there is hope for all, there is light at the end of this dark tunnel, and there is a way to reach out and grab hold of what is so essential to our well-being: times of rest and refreshing.

Embracing a Feeling Heart is a Christ-centered curriculum for people who would like to learn about the role that emotions play in our lives. God created people to feel a wide array of emotions, which give us valuable information about our hearts. Because of the fall, we tend to mishandle, misread, repress, suppress, avoid, or deny feelings, which make us great pretenders and experts at deceit. If you've been taught that emotions are unimportant or wrong to feel and express, or you have experienced shame over the emotions you experience, this book will give you new insights that will give you the freedom to experience all the emotions you were created to feel. This book can also help you learn to live a more authentic life, experience a deeper sense of community by helping you to form heart connections, and give you a deeper understanding of the Creator. Wendy J. Mahill is a member of the American Association of Christian Counselors, a lay counselor at Riverlakes Community Church in Bakersfield, California, and the director of Passionate Heart Ministries. She's written two other books used in this ministry: Growing a Passionate Heart is designed to help survivors of childhood sexual abuse, and Growing a Courageous Heart is designed to help women struggling with eating disorders. For more information, visit our website: passionateheartministry.com. In Embracing a Feeling Heart, Wendy Mahill gives feelings a voice in this epic journey of healing through feeling. Wendy pours out her personal testimony in each chapter, helping to bring about greater relevance, awareness, and understanding. I wholeheartedly recommend Wendy's book. Through this curriculum and the power of Christ, healing steps can be taken from denying a wounded heart to embracing a feeling heart. Tim Hardy, MFT, pastor of Care Ministries, Laurel Glen Bible Church.

Jessie Schlaser exemplifies Jesus's words in Matthew 25: "Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world, for I was hungry and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me, I tell you the truth, whatever you did for the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.' Caring for the least of these has been Jessie's life. Now she shares that life with you in words of wisdom and encouragement she received from God in some of her darkest hours of personal pain and in testimonies of God's power manifest in her life and through her in the lives of others. Walk with Jessie as well through visions of the garden of God and heed the warnings of the troubles of our times. This book gives a chronological look at the walk with God of an everyday follower of Jesus Christ, someone just like you and me. Jessie's purpose in sharing with you is that you might be encouraged, uplifted, and inspired in your own daily life, whatever stage of life you are in and whatever you are going through.
