a dynamic reading of the holy spirit in revelation attempts to read the book of revelation in a new way as a narrative embracing literary elements such as plot point of view narrative voice character and story structure to help readers discover its meanings by tracing the story anew lee s unique narrative perspective offers readers a bird s eye view to experience four levels of the story heaven earth abyss and the lake of fire lee develops a theological account of john s pneumatology and surely extends christian pneumatology a doctrine inseparable from the life of the church readers will come away with a greater understanding of the role of the holy spirit which will enable them to enjoy a deeper fellowship with the holy spirit more intimately than ever before lee portrays the book of revelation as a mission oriented book that tells how the kingdom of god will be built in this world through spiritual warfare rather than as a book of eschatology lee s book will serve as a spiritual wake up call to the modern church and the people of god in its accurate portrayal of the holy spirit and vivid description of spiritual warfare this book is about christianity islam judaism and how the arabs and europeans took these afrikan religious belief systems from ancient egypt north afrika and used them during the trans sahara afrikan slave trade by the arabs in the name of allah and followed by the transatlantic afrikan slave trade by the europeans in the name of jesus to enslave the bodies minds and souls of the afrikan race this book is about the jesus deception that has been passed on down through history by european historians that is still being taught around the world today this book takes a provocative intellectual scholastic historical cultural and sociological look at the bible this book identifies the names of the translators of the king james bible of 1611 a d and when the chapters and verses in the bible were created and who created them the purpose of this book is to expose the historical cultural sociological religious and theological lies of the europeans and the arabs this book reveals the truth of the origination of the bible as there is no religion higher than the truth join me in an intellectual odyssey through time here i feel like a lone warrior standing before a mighty army come with me on this perilous pilgrimage as we travel through a parallel universe i dedicate this book to my mother and father who gave me life to the rest of my native afrikan family for supporting me and encouraging me on this publishing venture to the heavenly father without whom none of this would be possible there are others i would also like to thank for being a part of helping me through this journey called life such as my professors at the alabama state university where many a great scholars paths i have crossed to my american family and friends in mobile alabama who nurtured and taught me from childhood to adulthood the many friends and colleagues i met in my travels all across america in my intellectual journey and last but certainly not least to my publisher for granting me the opportunity to speak to many all around the world in this forum i am eternally indebted to you all thank you the fourth volume in this epic and classic undertaking by one of the most notable theologians of the roman catholic church this volume features theological considerations towards such topics as virtues fortitude and temperance graces and states of life and other important topics that we often take for granted in our thinking in the church and in worship towards god these topics must be carefully considered if we are to ever have a deep understanding and love of the one true god and his son jesus christ
