in the extravagant robert baker explores the interplay between poetry and philosophy in the modern period engaging a broad range of writers kant wordsworth and lyotard in a chapter on the sublime rimbaud nietzsche and bataille in a chapter on visionary quest and kierkegaard dickinson mallarmé and derrida in a chapter on apocalyptic negativity his guiding concern is to illuminate adventures of extravagant or wandering language that from the romantic period on both poets and philosophers have undertaken in opposition to the dominant social and discursive frames of a pervasively instrumentalized world the larger interpretative narrative shaping the book is that a dialectic of instrumental reason and creative negativity has been at work throughout modern culture baker argues that adventures of exploratory wandering emerge in the romantic period as displaced articulations of older religious discourses given the dominant trends of the modern world however these adventures repeatedly lead to severe collisions and crises in response to which they are later revised or further displaced over time as instrumental structures come to disfigure every realm of modern life poetries and philosophies at odds with these structures are forced to criticize and surpass earlier voices in their traditions that seem to have lost a transformative power thus baker argues these adventures gradually unfold into various discourses of the negative prominent in contemporary culture discourses of decentering dispersing undoing and erring it is this dialectic that baker traces and interprets in this ambitious study
