michael mangis explores why we get stuck in a pattern of sin by looking at how we repeat one core or signature sin again and again he helps us each uncover that sin and then looks at gender personality family background and other influences that shape our sin offering further help in breaking sin patterns

this book takes you on a journey that unpacks and demystifies what spiritual growth is and how it unfolds the aim is to set you on your own path toward genuine personal spiritual transformation the book provides all the tools you need biblical scientific and practical so that you can develop your own pathway for spiritual growth what is unique about victor copan s approach to spiritual growth is that he explores recent findings of brain research as well as scientific research on habit formation and brings them into conversation with the process of spiritual formation research on the brain and on habit formation has uncovered significant insights about the process and dynamics of human transformation that can be fruitfully incorporated into our own pursuit of spiritual transformation tapping into this research allows us to work in concert with how god designed humans to function body soul and spirit this book provides a lively introduction to the exciting discipline of evangelical theology aligning with the global lausanne movement the authors identify scripture and mission as methodological centres of evangelical theology evangelical theology highlights the key evangelical themes of atonement conversion justification and sanctification as well as recent developments around trinitarian theology and pneumatology in his first letter peter declares that jesus bore our sins in his body so that we may cease from sin and live for righteousness he followed that by saying that some people had ceased from sin he himself bore our sins in his body on the tree that we may cease from sinning and live for righteousness 1 peter 2 24 since therefore christ suffered in the flesh arm yourselves with the same way of thinking for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for corrupt human desires but for the will of god 1 peter 4 1 2 peter says that there were people who had ceased from sin moreover he tells how they became people who had ceased from sin they suffered in the flesh he also gives us a glimpse into how such people lived no longer controlled by corrupt desires but by god s will the real possibility of ceasing from sin should be of great interest to those who love jesus john 14 15 21 23 24 seek to be controlled by god s will 1 peter 4 1 2 seek to live for righteousness 1 peter 2 24 seek to be free from sin seek the spiritual growth and fruitfulness that comes with being free from sin seek eternal life matthew 5 29 30 18 8 9 mark 9 44 47 seek fellowship and union with god john 14 15 21 23 satan is interested in keeping people from ceasing from sin he is seeking to rob jesus and us of the results of his sacrifice through one of the greatest deceptions in history causing people to believe that it is impossible to cease from sin when stanford m lyman authored the seven deadly sins society and evil in 1978 it was hailed by alasdair macintyre as a book of absorbing interest and importance that places us all in his debt by nelson hart as a masterful and thought provoking book that is the only scholarly treatment of sin that is so well informed by the best of ancient through modern perspectives by james a aho as a work whose abstract hardly does justice to the scholarly and detailed analysis of sin and by harry cohen as a book that stands as a beautiful illustration of what holistic idiosyncratic interdisciplinary and creative thinking and writing can bring to bear on the age old problem of society and evil the american sociological association s section on the sociology of the emotions selected this book as one of the works that laid the foundations for the study of pride lust envy and anger basic sentiments embedded in the social process for this revised and expanded edition lyman has written a new chapter sentiments sin and social conflict toward a sociology of the emotions the new edition will be a valuable work for courses in social psychology ethics deviance and the sociology of morals and of religion pride envy anger greed gluttony sloth and lust are the stumbling blocks the detours and the dead ends along the path of life the capital sins helps readers do three things name how these obstacles are operating in our lives claim our responsibility for the attitudes and actions which flow from them and tame the way these destructive tendencies affect us
