in threading the sovereign's needle a philosophical deconstruction of an investor state tribunal's authority to award interim relief in relation to criminal proceedings alexander g leventhal draws from a rich compendium of investor state case law deciding on requests for provisional measures in relation to criminal measures leventhal shows that rather than a diffuse set of contradictory decisions these cases obey a coherent philosophy he lays out in detail the criteria that these tribunals have considered the basis of the tribunal's jurisdiction the rights whose protection compels interim relief tribunals' considerations of the criteria for interim relief and the binding nature and enforceability of an order for interim relief more than that however he explains the reasons behind the results making this work a must read for practitioners and academics alike in case studies and comparative analysis of canada the united states france switzerland and belgium a distinguished international group of scholars looks at how and why provinces states cantons and large municipalities increasingly seek access to foreign sources of wealth and technological information the first book to explore the subject this new study examines the effects of these initiatives on the traditional conduct of foreign policy and foreign trade and the implications of the continued perforation of national boundaries already subject to an unprecedented flow of foreign products cultural influences and visitors as well as environmental pollution from
