but if you wish to know how these things come about ask grace not instruction desire not understanding the groaning of prayer not diligent reading the spouse not the teacher god not man darkness not clarity not light but the fire that totally enflames and carries us into god by ecstatic unctions and burning affections this fire is god and his furnace is in jerusalem bonaventure 1217 1274

the life ideas and selected writings of one of the greatest mystical philosophers of all time st bonaventure 1221 1274 is known as the seraphic doctor in honor of one of the basic qualities of his teaching the purest love he left us with a treasury of class writings of philosophical mysticism that explored the ascent of our minds and souls to god

this doctor of the church in a lifetime crowded with absorbing activities as ruler of his order for almost twenty years as cardinal bishop as director of the deliberations of an ecumenical council yet became one of the church s supreme expositors of the theology of love from the first he was known to be a giant and succeeding centuries saw almost innumerable editions of his works archbishop paschal robinson has pointed out that no writer from the middle ages onward has been more widely read and copied yet comparatively little of this interest is reflected in publications in the english tongue of course the prince of mystics as leo xiii called him is not wholly unknown among us so great is the power of his genius so insistent his message to the heart and spirit that these qualities have in some degree forced their way through whatever barriers exist translators of merit both franciscans and others have brought over into english separate chosen opera and these have conveyed enough of his greatness to establish it as a fact but though he is an acknowledged master he remains by and large to us a master still unread
