a fresh examination of the four poems of the cotton manuscript arguing that they share a profound theological vision provides translations of sir gawain and the green knight pearl and patience the magnificent heritage of english poetry before chaucer is often neglected because of difficulties with unfamiliar dialect these translations reveal what we are missing if we ignore it piers plowman belongs to the tradition of medieval allegory but without any of the stuffiness that label suggests it paints a vivid picture of everyday life in the 14th century with a vigour and detail which anticipates the canterbury tales however the jewel in the crown of middle english verse is sir gawain and the green knight here presented in the classic version by jrr tolkien author of the lord of the rings currently being filmed a wonderfully told story which combines suspense fantasy exquisite domestic detail and sensuality sir gawain and the green knight a modernisation by a s kline written in middle english of the late fourteenth century sir gawain and the green knight survives in a single manuscript which also contains three religious poems including pearl written it seems by the same author who is therefore referred to as the pearl poet the poem tells the story of an incident at the court of king arthur involving sir gawain s acceptance of a challenge from the mysterious green knight and leading to a test of his chivalry and courage the poem is a lively atmospheric and cleverly paced example of a quest tale from which the hero emerges chastened and wiser and contains an interesting mix of celtic french and english motifs there are many and varied interpretations of the themes and symbols contained in the story and echoes are found in many other folklore tales and legends this and other texts available from poetry in translation poetryintranslation com
