the story of the bosnian muslims in world war ii is an epic frequently alluded to in discussions of the 1990s balkan conflicts but almost as frequently misunderstood or falsified this first comprehensive study of the topic in any language sets the record straight based on extensive research in the archives of bosnia herzegovina serbia and croatia it traces the history of bosnia and its muslims from the nazi german and fascist italian occupation of yugoslavia in 1941 through the years of the yugoslav civil war and up to the seizure of power by the communists and their establishment of a new yugoslav state the book explores the reasons for muslim opposition to the new order established by the nazis and fascists in bosnia in 1941 and the different forms this opposition took it describes how the yugoslav communists were able to harness part of this muslim opposition to support their own resistance movement and revolutionary bid for power this muslim element in the communists revolution shaped its form and outcome but ultimately had itself to be curbed as the victorious communists consolidated their dictatorship in doing so they set the scene for future struggles over yugoslavia s muslim question the 1948 un convention on the prevention and punishment of the crime of genocide genocide convention has a special standing in international law and international politics for 60 years the crime of genocide has been recognised as the most horrendous crime in international law famously designated the crime of crimes on the occasion of the 60th anniversary of its adoption the un high commissioner for human rights stated that genocide is the ultimate form of discrimination in the same context the chief prosecutor of the international criminal court described the genocide convention as a visionary and founding text for the court the convention has as such influenced the subsequent development of many different areas of international law for example the 1951 advisory opinion on the genocide convention enabled the international court of justice to shape the modern regime of reservations to treaties more recently the prohibition against genocide has become a crucial pillar of the regime of international criminal law developing since the 1990s with genocide being one of the core crimes falling under the jurisdiction of the un ad hoc tribunals the extraordinary chambers in the courts of cambodia and the permanent international criminal court in this work the 19 provisions of the convention are analysed article by article with abundant references to state practice and case law
