new scholarship on katherine mansfield s the garden party and other stories together with creative work inspired by mansfield the last collection of short stories published in her lifetime the garden party and other stories would solidify katherine mansfield s place as the most prominent modernist short story writer of her generation early reviewers of the collection commented on the similarities it shared with her previous collection bliss and other stories however while contemporary reviews were mixed many emphasised the psychological power of her stories praising how she was able to bring her characters to life in a way simple action could not while it contains some of mansfield s most sophisticated and well loved stories several of the stories in the garden party initially appeared in the sphere and thus were often dismissed as inferior mansfield herself felt some of these stories fell short of her desired effect though recent scholarship has revealed their greater complexity the essays in this volume by both seasoned and newer mansfield scholars work to continue this conversation the collection also includes mansfield inspired short fiction two translations of memorial poems dedicated to mansfield by chinese and french contemporaries with accompanying notes and a recently re discovered book review by mansfield in addition sydney janet kaplan provides a reflection on her personal meeting with christopher isherwood a writer heavily influenced by the life and work of mansfield combining narratological and stylistic methods this book theorizes dual narrative dynamics consisting of plot development and covert progression and demonstrates the consequences for the interpretation of literary works in narratives with such dynamics writers work simultaneously with overt and covert trajectories of signification establishing a range of relationships between them the two parallel narrative movements may complement contradict or even subvert each other and these relationships significantly influence readers understanding not just of events but also of characters themes and aesthetic values the book provides a systematic theoretical account of such previously neglected dual narrative dynamics substantiated and enriched by the textual analysis of works by ambrose bierce kate chopin franz kafka and katherine mansfield the study explores the many ways that these authors have used dual dynamics to increase the power of their narratives in addition the book identifies the challenges such dual dynamics present not only for narratology but also for stylistics and translation studies and it develops sound and provocative proposals for meeting those challenges in taking an interdisciplinary approach this book will appeal to scholars and students in the fields of narrative and literary theory literary criticism literary stylistics and translation studies
