faith seeking conviviality traces the journey of a u s missionary into brazil and beyond seeking to be faithfully present while also questioning the default settings of good intentions taking ivan illich as the primary theological guide on that journey faith seeking conviviality narrates the discovery of a renewed imagination for christian mission that arises as a response to two persistent questions first given the colonial history of christian missionary expansion on what basis do we go on fulfilling the great commission matt 28 16 20 as christ s disciples a second question intimately related to the first is what makes it possible to embody a distinctively christian presence that is missionary without being manipulative in doing theology with and after ivan illich faith seeking conviviality does not offer a pull off the shelf model for mission but rather a framework for embodying the incarnational logic of mission that entails a convivial turn delinking missionary discipleship from the lure of techniques and institutional dependence in order to receive and to share the peace of christ relationally

a collection of essays that demonstrates that to be effective in the twenty first century mission must be prophetic as it encounters other cultures and religious traditions when we speak as mission as dialogue then we are about as far away from imagining mission as conquering the world for christ and missionaries as marines of the catholic church as we probably can get there has indeed been a radical shift both in the world in which the church does mission and within the church s own consciousness of the goodness and even holiness of that world these words from one of the essays in this superb collection clearly demonstrate the changing of mission today in this volume fathers bevans and schroeder address a primary challenge faced by christians missionaries today how can they bring the christian tradition to interact respectfully and effectively with members of other cultures and traditions from around the globe and still be prophetic
