this book is an attempt to answer the question what is a person although the answer is given in largely theoretical terms the author is concerned primarily with practice what does it mean to live as a human person in community with others what personal social and political practices are required by personal being the central insight that human identity is most productively understood in communicational terms leads to an account of personhood which is both compassionate and which at the same time keeps sight of the particularity of each individual helps christian college students develop a biblical understanding of communication and challenges them to apply it to their intended occupations in a way that makes a redemptive difference in the world the book introduces christian students to public speaking as a mode through which they can engage people in a way that advances what god values this book is a revision and condensation of a doctoral dissertation which its author wrote under the direction of the well known father karl rahner at the university of münster it focuses on the importance of st ignatius small book the spiritual exercises as a source of theological investigation thus it stems from rahner s own conviction as he states in his foreword that the real theological and not only the spiritual significance of ignatius spiritual exercises presents a non yet accomplished task to today s theology absorbing synthesizing and completing past studies on the exercises father egan summarizes the finding of modern scholars such as przwara fessard karl rahner hugo rahner marxer cusson gil bakker and gonzalez de mendoza all hitherto relatively unavailable in english and then presents his own fresh viewpoint his quest is for ignatius mystical horizon the lived internal unity the roots of all of ignatius experiences knowledge and love applying the contemporary methodology in theology to the study of the ignatian exercises the author offers a penetrating and comprehensive treatment of ignatius consolation without previous cause of the three times of election including intellectual and affective discernment the trinitarian dimensions of the exercises and other important ignatian themes the book is scholarly and extensively documented and seems to be the most comprehensive and up to date theological commentary in english on the exercises one experienced critic has called it one of the greatest contributions to the present commentary on the exercises adding her distinctive voice to lively conversations about the work and legacy of jonathan edwards larsen shows that edwards thinks boldly about the freedom of the father and the son within their blessed fellowship in the spirit she identifies profound insights into the relationship between the divine being and the divine economy by focusing on edwards s understanding of the son as he undertakes the work of ad extra glorification the work by which god is externally blessed through god s communication to creatures in addition to careful analyses of the covenantal and evocative registers in which edwards describes the fittingness of the son s redemptive mission larsen concludes by drawing resources from edwards s christology that speak to key issues of freedom and aesthetics in reformed thought today this work is a fresh unusually lucid approach to christian theology and interfaith dialogue fromÊindia Êits basic aim is to examine the christian consciousness of god s work in history redemption history within the entire Êhistory of the world Êit uses christian faith by friedrich schleiermacher 1768 1834 as its main text so as to view this theme in a reversed order from the way it is presented there this approach which centers on god s new creation in christ leads to an incisive understanding of christianity s relation to other modes of faith Êthroughout dr kunnuthara compares the thought of another indian christian leader steeped in hindu thought pandippedi chenchiah 1886 1959 to enable renewed interfaith dialogue across a wide spectrum
