at the end of the first world war more than 192 000 wives had lost their husbands and nearly 400 000 children had lost their fathers few people remained unscathed the quick and the dead pays tribute to the families who were left behind while their husbands fathers and sons went off to fight and the generations that followed through a unique collection of more than fifty interviews private diaries and a remarkable collection of unpublished letters written by the soldiers to their families back home the quick and the dead is a history of those who are commonly forgotten and neglected when the fallen are remembered on armistice day in the post positivist era in which cartesian epistemology must be overcome we require a normative criterion of truth without it rationality of our beliefs and justifiability of our political acts are in question this study seeks an epistemological criterion of truth that is attentive to the sociopolitical conditions that determine meaning based on more than 30 case studies in eight different countries this book explores the governance dynamics of local social innovations in the field of poverty reduction the diverse team of contributors reflects on the trajectory of social innovation in european governance they illustrate how different governance dynamics and welfare mixes enable or hinder poverty reduction strategies and analyse how such dynamics involve a diversity of actors instruments and resources at different spatial scales the contributions are based on research motivated by the standstill in the fight against poverty in europe and the anxiety that conventional macro social policies are insufficient to deal with the current challenges
