do you have a question about god jesus the bible or theology do you need help understanding a bible verse or passage are there any spiritual issues in your life for which you need advice or counsel then this book is designed for you with 100s of questions and answers robert goebel details simple and yet deeply profound explanations of the bible that can help transform your life and lead you to a deeper relationship with christ god bless you on your spiritual journey as christians we claim to have found freedom in jesus christ yet under the surface most christians would admit that they still struggle with many negative habits habitual emotional reactions destructive thoughts wrong attitudes addictive behaviors and deeply rooted relational patterns many suffer with a mounting frustration and a sense of failure wondering if there is truly power to change in the gospel the rugged road to freedom heralds the need to address these habits as they occur in the moments of the day illustrating the transformative power of prayer and the need for a conversational relationship with god in this book christian counselor joy brewster describes her great difficulty in trying to make changes in her own personal habits and also in her efforts as a professional relationship counselor to enable her clients to change after searching prayer she began to develop and practice both personally and professionally a put off put on process she saw in many passages of scripture developing three steps in each part this process she realized was effective only when she encountered god in very personal relational prayer in each step relating her own experiences those of her clients and those of her students she seeks to convince the reader that this prayer process can bring about true change mounting freedom and vastly enriched daily fellowship with god i write a lot of these but few with this much enthusiasm i have had the privilege for almost eight years to walk alongside joy in life and work alongside her in ministry she has been a friend and a mentor and i have both tasted and seen her wisdom i have witnessed her take hundreds of people through the process described in rugged road and watched over and over genuine transformation take place the blind see the deaf hear and freedom is proclaimed to the captives i myself have been deeply helped by her maybe most convincing of all joy s own life is a work of ongoing transformation she knows that of which she speaks now her gift is in your hands mark buchanan author of your god is too safe and the rest of god joy brewster is director of counseling ministries at new life community baptist church in duncan british columbia rival conceptions of freedom in modern iran is an original historiographic examination of the idea of freedom in early modern iran within a larger context of the formation of modern muslim thought the study develops an appropriate method for the historiography of ideas by taking into consideration cultural linguistic and socio political limitations and obstacles to free thinking in closed societies the research shows how most locutions about freedom uttered during early modern iran were formed within the horizon of the question of iran s decline and were somehow related to remedying such situations it challenges previous studies which employed isaiah berlin s distinction between positive and negative freedom as two fundamentally different concepts of freedom it replaces berlin s dichotomy of positive and negative liberties with maccallum s triadic concept of freedom and argues that thinkers in early modern iran could noticeably present rival interpretations of three variables of the concept of freedom namely the agent the constraint and the purpose of freedom rival conceptions of freedom in modern iran is a unique contribution to the histories of the 1905 11 constitutional revolution in iran and comparative political thinking between iran and europe it is an essential resource for scholars interested in constitutionalism history political theory and sociology within middle eastern studies human freedom has been the source of both the high points of humanity as well as of its low points thus giving rise to the impression that it is a somewhat ambivalent concept according to martien brinkman the major factor in this ambivalence is the rather narrow meaning that the concept has received in the course of history freedom is for the most part understood as freedom from or freedom to but only rarely as freedom for however it is precisely this latter understanding that is closest to the christian understanding of freedom which brinkman defines as internal attachment in his view christian freedom is at bottom characterized by that to which one commits oneself in trust he sees primarily the christian theology of baptism with its accent on dying and rising with christ as the model for the way in which one acquires freedom brinkman illustrates this in this study by means of a great number of biblical images and images borrowed from the historical debates between augustine and pelagius and luther and erasmus
