Loretta Wallis is a girl with an outrageous imagination that hijacks her mind at any moment. Can anything match it? After her family move to London, they start seeing Aunt Doris whose late husband Walter had been an inventor extraordinaire. Aunt Doris thereby keeps a secret which is perhaps too extreme to tell. When the secret is eventually revealed to Loretta and her brother Mark, Aunt Doris is unable to guess what will happen next. So it is that events spiral out of control as the dangers which result from our everyday lives become an ever-increasing threat.

A Village Vacancy is a tour de force of beautiful, funny and emotional storytelling. Fay Keenan, from the bestselling author of A Village Affair, comes a warm, witty, wonderful new Westenbury tale as the Yorkshire village of Westenbury mourns the loss of one of their own. The women can't help but contemplate who will fill the vacancy in handsome widower David's life. Meanwhile, Grace Stevens has decided to move on without her good-for-nothing husband. Right now, she needs to focus less on men and more on wrangling with her unruly class of pre-teens. And thankfully, there's plenty to keep her occupied between an accidental dalliance with a pupil's dad, helping close down a drug ring and keeping up with her closest girlfriends. Grace is busier than ever, but as she spends more time with David, her determination to go it alone begins to waver. Praise for Julie Houston: a warm, funny story of sisters and the secrets they keep. Sheila O'Flanagan: warm, funny and well-written with a page-turning plot. This book has everything I loved in Katie Fforde's Julie Houston at her best: heartfelt and hilarious, Sandy Barker: laugh out loud, hilarious and heartwarming. Mandy Baggot: this book is an absolute gigglefest with characters you'll fall in love with. Katie Ginger:

It demonstrates the centrality of cricket in the evolving relationship between culture, sport and politics, starting with South Africa as the beating heart of the imperial project and ending with the country as an international pariah. The contributors explore the tensions between fragmentation and unity on and off the pitch in the context of the racist ideology of empire, its arrested development and the reliance of South Africa on a racially based exploitative labour
