--- Introduction to Strategic Management in Action

Strategic management involves a continuous process of analyzing an organization's internal and external environments, formulating strategies to capitalize on opportunities and mitigate threats, and implementing those strategies effectively. Mary Coulter's approach emphasizes the dynamic nature of this process, recognizing that strategy is not static but must evolve in response to changing circumstances. Strategic management in action is about translating theory into practice—taking the concepts from textbooks and applying them in real organizational contexts to create sustainable competitive advantages.

--- The Foundations of Strategic Management According to Mary Coulter

1. The Importance of Strategic Planning
2. The Strategic Management Process

Mary Coulter underscores that strategic planning provides a roadmap for organizational success. It involves:

- Defining mission and vision
- Setting objectives
- Conducting situational analysis
- Formulating strategies
- Implementing and controlling strategies

The Strategic Management Process Coulter articulates a cyclical process comprising:

- Environmental Scanning: Gathering information about external opportunities and threats, as well as internal strengths and weaknesses.
- Strategy Formulation: Developing corporate, business, and functional strategies.
- Strategy Implementation: Resource allocation, organizational structure adjustments, and leadership.
- Strategy Evaluation: Monitoring performance and making necessary adjustments.

3. The Role of Leadership and Organizational Culture Effective strategic management requires committed leadership and a culture that supports innovation, flexibility, and continuous improvement.

--- Applying Strategic Management in Practice

Step 1: Environmental Analysis Understanding the environment is foundational. Coulter advocates tools such as:

- SWOT Analysis: Identifying internal strengths and weaknesses, external opportunities and threats.
- PESTEL Analysis: Examining Political, Economic, Social, Technological, Environmental, and Legal factors impacting the organization.
