four sisters temporarily move into a manhattan brownstone together after a car accident kills their mother and blinds one of the sisters

a new york times notable book of the year a skillfully crafted gothic mystery johnson pulls off a great feat in this book financial times it reminded me in its general refusal to play nice of early ian mcewan the new york times book review johnson crafts an aching thriller about the dangers of loving too intensely time from a booker prize finalist and international literary star a blazing portrait of one darkly riveting sibling relationship from the inside out one of her generation s most intriguing authors entertainment weekly daisy johnson is the youngest writer to have been shortlisted for the man booker prize now she returns with sisters a haunting story about two sisters caught in a powerful emotional web and wrestling to understand where one ends and the other begins born just ten months apart july and september are thick as thieves never needing anyone but each other now following a case of school bullying the teens have moved away with their single mother to a long abandoned family home near the shore in their new isolated life july finds that the deep bond she has always shared with september is shifting in ways she cannot entirely understand a creeping sense of dread and unease descends inside the house meanwhile outside the sisters push boundaries of behavior until a series of shocking encounters tests the limits of their shared experience and forces shocking revelations about the girls past and future written with radically inventive language and imagery by an author whose work has been described as entrancing the new yorker a force of nature the new york times book review and weird and wild and wonderfully unsettling celeste ng sisters is a one two punch of wild fury and heartache a taut powerful and deeply moving account of sibling love and what happens when two sisters must face each other s darkest impulses

now a major film september says the electrifying novel from the booker shortlisted author of everything under a short sharp explosion of a gothic thriller observer something unspeakable has happened to sisters july and september desperate for a fresh start they move across the country to an old family house that has a troubled life of its own noises come from behind the walls lights flicker of their own accord sleep feels impossible dreams are endless in their new unsettling surroundings july finds that the fierce bond she's always had with September forged with a blood promise when they were children is beginning to change in ways she cannot understand four sisters a manhattan brownstone and a tumultuous year of loss and courage are at the heart of danielle steel's new novel about a remarkable family a stunning tragedy and what happens when four very different young women come together under one very lively roof candy it's the only name she needs is blazing her way through paris new york and tokyo as fashion's latest international supermodel her sister tammy has a job producing the most successful hit show on tv and a home she loves in la's hollywood hills in new york oldest sister sabrina is an ambitious young lawyer while annie is an american artist in florence living for her art on one fourth of july weekend as they do every year the four sisters come home to connecticut for their family's annual gathering but before the holiday is over tragedy strikes and their world is utterly changed suddenly four sisters who have been fervently pursuing success and their own lives on opposite sides of the world reunite to share one new york brownstone to support each other and their father and to pick up the pieces while one sister struggles to heal her shattered body and soul thus begins an unscripted chapter of their lives as a bustling house is soon filled with eccentric dogs laughter tears friends men and the kind of honesty and unconditional love only sisters can provide but as the four women settle in they are forced to confront the direction of their respective lives as the year passes and another july fourth approaches a season of grief and change gives way to new beginnings as a family comes together to share its blessings and a future filled with surprises and ultimately hope with unerring insight and compassion danielle steel tells a compelling story of four sisters who love and laugh struggle and triumph and are irrevocably woven into the fabric of each other's lives brilliantly blending humor and heartbreak she delivers a powerful message about the fragility and the wonder of life from the hardcover edition ever since they met as teenagers volunteering at a conference center in costa rica 20 years ago fern espinoza and lily graden have shared a close friendship even though they live in different states they can hardly believe it when their teen dream of traveling to africa together becomes a reality it's the trip of a lifetime but life sure isn't what they thought it would be back when they were young along with their suitcases each woman brings along emotional baggage that weighs heavily on them yet the people they meet and the places they experience have the power to change their hearts but only if they surrender to the lessons god wants to teach them in this unexpected land of emerald tea fields graceful giraffes and rambunctious elephants pack your bags and get ready for adventure as robin jones gunn invites you on a safari of the heart in this vulnerable exploration of how to move forward in faith even when the future is uncertain in the tradition of marilynne robinson s housekeeping and elizabeth strout s olive kitteridge a dazzling debut novel about the family bonds that remain even when they seem irretrievably torn apart growing up in hardscrabble kentucky in the 1920s with their mother dead and their stepfather an ever present threat bertie fischer and her older sister mabel have no one but each other with perhaps a sweetheart for bertie waiting in the wings but on the day that bertie receives her eighth grade diploma good intentions go terribly wrong a choice made in desperate haste sets off a chain of misunderstandings that will divide the sisters and reverberate through three generations of women what happens when nothing turns out as you planned from the depression through world war ii and vietnam and smaller events both tragic and joyful bertie and mabel forge unexpected identities that are shaped by unspeakable secrets as the sisters have daughters and granddaughters of their own they discover that both love and betrayal are even more complicated than they seem gorgeously written with extraordinary insight and emotional truth nancy jensen s powerful debut novel illuminates the far reaching power of family and family secrets
