for the western scholar of islam the great body of arabic literature known as the hadith has long been of outstanding interest and a subject of intensive study hadith as a common noun simply means talk conversation but in the technical religious sense it is used for the individual reported sayings of the prophet his companions the first caliphs and others of the pious scholars of early islam and from this usage it has become a generic term for the whole corpus of these sayings the present book of maulana muhammad ali contains 690 traditions some three quarters of them derived from al bukhari s sahih and the rest from the other sunan and authoritative compilations ali produced this hadith translation during wwii so had to reduce the manuscript by one third because of paper shortages the intent of this volume was to provide a compendium of the sahih bukhari related to the practical life rather than to spiritual or historical concerns of muslims the work is intended primarily to guide english speaking muslim converts
