mrs moose is a small woman with a big heart and enormous courage the only survivor of a cossack raid on her village she takes with her a big cast iron frying pan

a superb storyteller it is impossible not to be impressed by courtenay s talents the times

Jessica is based on the real life of a remarkable young Australian woman who defied the conventions of her time. She had a stubborn streak and the courage to act out her convictions in spite of the consequences. This compelling, sweeping story is her personal fight for justice against enormous odds and a testimony to the power of the human spirit to triumph over adversity.

The Night Country is an enchanting and inspiring story from one of Australia's most popular authors, Bryce Courtenay, which draws on the author's childhood in Africa towards the end of the Great Depression. A young boy goes with his sister to stay at a farm while their mother is ill there. During a scorching African summer, he witnesses a trial and punishment which will forever remind him of white men's cruelty to black people. Beautifully packaged with striking watercolour illustrations, The Night Country is a fable for all ages, a powerful account of the strength that lives within us all. It is gripping but deeply distressing writing. Nonetheless, it should be read and discussed. The Canberra Times says The Night Country is as frank and funny as it is poetic and painful. It is a deeply personal collection with universal relevance. Adelaide Advertiser: an impressive and magnificent story which should be read by all. Hobart Mercury: a gripping saga set in apartheid South Africa. New Woman:

...collection of articles from the Pitch column in the Australian, divided into sections covering topics which are either of general interest or which cover advertising and other related subjects. The author is an advertising expert whose previous books, The Power of One and Tandia, have been international bestsellers.

A young boy becomes an inspiring symbol for black and white as he experiences an odyssey through pro-Nazi South Africa during World War II.

Half African, half Indian, and beautiful, Tandia is just a teenager when she is brutally attacked and violated by the south african police desperately afraid and consumed by hatred for the white man tandia seeks refuge in a brothel deep in the veld there she learns to use her brilliant mind and extraordinary looks as weapons for the battles that lie ahead she trains as a terrorist but then tandia meets a man with a past as strange as her own peekay an oxford undergraduate who is also the challenger for the world welterweight boxing championship and a white man and in a land where mixed relationships are outlawed their growing love can only have the most explosive consequences
