the most complete and comprehensive collection of residential projects from the world's most internationally recognized and renowned architect though prolific in civic and commercial work tadao ando first gained recognition for his residential projects which were constructed solidly of concrete but ingeniously imbued with light and air this exhaustive study is a complete catalog of all his residential work to date including two new homes just finished in 2013 this volume features unseen and unpublished works presented through lavish and striking color photographs as well as detailed architectural drawings and plans of over thirty years of ando's residential work from the sumiyoshi row house in 1975 to the current houses for global design connoisseurs and art collectors

this book showcases recent houses by the world renowned japanese minimalist architect offering unprecedented access to his thought process through more than 100 photographs line drawings sketches and plans tadao ando is one of the best known and most influential contemporary architects with a minimalist aesthetic and love of natural materials like glass and concrete proof that less is more this volume features ten houses and examines his approach to these designs viewed as a collection these houses serve to demonstrate the wide range of ando s prodigious genius through lavish and striking photographs characteristics of his work include large expanses of unadorned architectural concrete walls combined with wooden or stone floors and large windows he uses simple methods to solve complicated and small spaces and turns them into spaces with breathtaking landscapes with precise and beautiful photographs accompanied by tadao ando s sketches drawings and plans this volume presents several unseen and little published works from the bosco studio and house facing the pacific ocean in oaxaca mexico 2014 to a penthouse in manhattan for a japanese collector completed in 2019

tadao ando b 1941 is japan s leading architect and designer with a dazzling international reputation he recently won the 1995 pritzker architecture prize for consistent and significant contributions to the built environment a comprehensive monograph of ando s work this book examines over one hundred buildings and projects designed between 1969 94 illustrated by photographs plans and exquisite sketches to strengthen the contemporary focus of this volume we have added about forty architects and have deleted some whose activity ceased before world war ii in making these decisions we have been assisted by an advisory board as in the first volume we have continued to define the word architect very broadly so as to include planners theorists structural engineers and landscape architects whose work seems to be central to the enterprise of creating habitable spaces in our day editor s note the house in the twentieth century describes the history of the modern house covering all the key design examples together with many others that are less well known but equally important in an architectural sense a survey of the extensive series of museums designed and built by tadao ando in japan europe and the usa ever since tadao ando started to establish himself more than thirty years ago as one of the best designers on the international scene for the rigour and character of his works his intense activity has moved tirelessly between private residences and public buildings each of these works has added a small piece to the construction of a cohesive path based on a strong and clear use of geometry the employment of few materials in the right proportions the harmony of the spaces and a strong sense of the relationship with the landscape from this point of view the series of museums designed by tadao ando tells of the japanese master s design philosophy perfectly examining the broad spectrum of home design as well as house architecture this book documents the relationship between interior and exterior space the evolution of furniture domestic appliances and other factors 370 illustrations 200 in color
