presidential candidates are a breed apart often propelled by traits that have shaped their careers and have deep roots in personal histories often their greatest strength can turn at supernova speed into their greatest weakness the exact qualities that set them apart from the field trip them up eventually over the long haul of a presidential campaign rand paul s ability to sell himself as the most libertarian of the presidential candidates defending civil liberties at home and opposing military adventurism and nation building abroad is what can set him apart but those unconventional ideas could also box him in libertarians don t win national elections unless you count thomas jefferson in 1800 and 1804 in this series of ebooks the washington post is exploring in depth all these key characteristics of the leading presidential contenders the very characteristics that could help make one of them the country s next commander in chief or forever sink their presidential ambitions senator rand paul was on to anthony fauci from the start wielding previously unimaginable power fauci misled the country about the origins of the covid pandemic and shut down scientific dissent one of the few leaders who dared to challenge america s doctor was senator rand paul himself a physician deception is his indictment of the catastrophic failures of the public health bureaucracy during the pandemic senator paul presents the evidence that the covid virus was likely the product of gain of function research at the wuhan lab in china research funded in part by the u s government taxpayer dollars for that research were deceptively funneled to wuhan without the required regulatory review fauci and his scientific yes men knew from day one about covid s origin and tried to cover it up fauci and his allies ruthlessly attacked everyone including highly qualified scientists who threatened to reveal the truth about the pandemic why hundreds of millions of dollars of grants and unreported royalties were at stake and heads would roll if the truth got out it almost worked at fauci s insistence the government imposed needlessly extreme lockdowns on americans at the cost of immense personal and economic destruction covid 19 was deadly but the real killer was the coverup led by america s most durable medical bureaucrat a man for whom the truth was too often expendable senator paul makes a powerful case that funding dangerous bioengineering in a totalitarian country is madness if we don t heed this warning the next pandemic could be far worse what are the real differences between the democrats and the republicans on major economic issues that influence the character and vitality of the american economy this volume answers this question in a thorough nonpartisan and evenhanded fashion both the democratic and republican parties proclaim that they have the best interests of the nation and its people at heart both are also adamant that they have the best proposals and positions on economic policies including taxation spending priorities wages business regulation and other influences on economic growth and household finances this volume carefully examines the two parties respective policies providing a detailed yet readable and understandable look at how the parties agree disagree and find compromise on the broad range of problems and issues facing american society in the 21st century each entry includes an infographic that offers bulleted at a glance summaries of the two parties positions on each issue today an issue overview providing basic definitions and background for understanding the debate on each issue and a main entry that explains prevailing party sentiments the diversity of opinion within each party and the shifts in party position on that issue over time selected entries also feature informative sidebars that supply additional content such as primary documents that showcase the viewpoints of key political figures and institutions or biographical profiles of individuals who have helped shape their party s policies on the issue in question political scientist robert g kaufman argues that barack obama has articulated a clear consistent national security policy and has pursued it with remarkable fidelity yet kaufman contends that president obama has imprudently abandoned the muscular internationalism that has marked us foreign policy since the end of world war ii
