reason for this book s being i have always liked the notion of keeping a written account of my thoughts and feelings especially of my feelings for they are usually all jumbled up in my mind like ribbons on a remnant counter but after i have set them down in black and white where i can stand off and look at them they are no more complicated than sardines in a box this sullivan family consists of a father who drinks just a little enough to keep him jolly all the time a mother who is of such a despondent nature that you wish she would drink a daughter who wears crimson silk gowns and jeweled combs to the post office when she goes for her mail every morning yet withal has more beaus than any other girl in the village as is attested by the candy boxes piled piano high in her parlor and a maiden aunt miss delia badger who dyes her hair the next day which was the second after their moving when i turned in at our gate after my morning tramp i found that the sullivans were presenting a much more homelike view from the front of their house elaborate curtains showing at the parlor windows and at the front door a white panel of lace a most lifelike affair representing andrew jackson mounted upon his fiery steed and lifting his high white hat to an imaginary though evidently enthusiastic throng
