inspired by the philosophy of wittgenstein and his idea that the purpose of real philosophical thinking is not to discover something new but to show in a strikingly different light what is already there this book provides philosophical readings of a number of arthouse and hollywood films each chapter contains a discussion of two films one explored in greater detail and the other analyzed as a minor key which reveals the possibility for the book s ideas to be applied across different films registers and genres the readings are not only interpretive but they offer a way of thinking and feeling about with and through films which is genuinely transformative rupert read s main contention is that certain films can bring about a change in how we see the world he advocates an ecological approach to film philosophy analysis arguing that film can re shape the viewer s relationship to the environment and other living beings the transformative wake up call of these films is enlightenment in its true sense the result is a book that ambitiously aims to change though film how we think of ourselves and our place in the world at a time when such change is more needed than ever before
