cultural writing latino latina studies fiction perhaps the most admired of all marguerite duras's novels Moderato Cantabile is almost a twentieth century madame bovary in its picture of the dissatisfied wife of a rich provincial industrialist who forms an attachment to one of her husband's workmen this is not the normal chronicle of adultery but a carefully woven tapestry of emotion a haunting oblique love story it perfectly demonstrates the duras technique of associating human emotion with locales and landscapes and of describing longing loneliness and love through references to weather temperature the color of the sky and the sound of the sea

a distressed young man murders the woman he loves in a café watched by a large crowd fascinated by the crime she has witnessed anne desbarres returns several times to the scene forming a relationship with a man who also saw the murder and drinking through the afternoon with him as he patiently answers her eager questions slowly they find themselves being taken over by forces which threaten their own stability moderato cantabile is a carefully woven tapestry of emotion in which the characters inner lives are reflected by the story s spaces and landscapes in this volume of four short novels duras demonstrates her remarkable ability to create an emotional intensity and unity by focusing on the intimate details of the relationships among only a few central characters from the park bench couple in the square 1955 to the double love triangle in 10 30 on a summer night 1960 each novel probes the depths and complexities of human emotion of love and of despair exceptional for their range in mood and situation these four novels are unparalleled exhibitions of a poetic beauty that is uniquely duras publisher description french novels such as madame bovary and the stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses this work provides coverage of the french novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in french culture and civilization a collection of four short novels by the renowned prix goncourt winning author of the lover long acknowledged as one of the most important literary figures in france marguerite duras has garnered worldwide praise for her work from the acclaimed screenplay hiroshima mon amour to the best selling novel the lover in these four short novels duras demonstrates her remarkable ability to create an emotional intensity and unity by focusing on the intimate details of the relationships among only a few central characters from the park bench couple in the square 1955 to the double love triangle in 10 30 on a summer night 1960 each novel probes the depths and complexities of human emotion of love and of despair exceptional for their range in mood and situation these four novels beautifully showcase the poetic sensibility that is uniquely duras how does a novel accrue value how do certain new and unknown authors and their works make their way from obscurity into the pantheon of the greats or at least the firmament of the stars minuit examines the role played by french publishing house editions de minuit in altering the conception of literary france not once but twice the history of les editions de minuit is an integral part of the history of the literary field in minuit spalding s work captures many of the cultural dimensions of literary production and dissemination at the height of france s post war intellectual and literary effervescence and again in the more recent period when minuit became the vehicle for french literature s postmodern turn this book studies marguerite duras s use of mass media and criminal faits divers as critical components of her literary project careful textual analysis shows the particular fragile nature of this engagement as well as the intricate textures of duras s work this leads to a striking new model of the relation between the literary text and the ethical life of its readers which will be of importance not only to specialists in french studies but to all those interested in ethical criticism and modern literary studies book jacket explores the concept of desire through psychoanalytic theory
