blade runner has left an indelible mark on popular culture adapted from philip k dick s novel do androids dream of electric sheep it anticipated with remarkable prescience the world in which we have lived for the past four decades ridley scott s breathtaking vision of a futuristic and cosmopolitan metropolis created an aesthetic and cognitive shock that continues to resonate to this day not only in cinema but in multiple artistic and even scientific domains the film is often cited in debates related to robotics biopolitics posthumanism urban planning and critical theory denis villeneuve s sequel blade runner 2049 continues to explore these themes while introducing issues related to artificial intelligence transhumanism and climate change blade runner is often credited with having spawned several aesthetic trends such as retrofuturism techno noir or future noir and most significantly cyberpunk to explore the origins and legacies of this monumental work this essay collection brings together specialists from fields as diverse as film and media studies comparative literature and mythology photography architecture fashion studies psychology sociology and biopolitics this book of essays looks at the multitude of texts and influences which converge in ridley scott s film blade runner especially the film s relationship to its source novel philip k dick s do androids dream of electric sheep the film s implications as a thought experiment provide a starting point for important thinking about the moral issues implicit in a hypertechnological society yet its importance in the history of science fiction and science fiction film rests equally on it mythically and psychologically resonant creation of compelling characters and an exciting story within a credible science fiction setting these essays consider political moral and technological issues raised by the film as well as literary filmic technical and aesthetic questions contributors discuss the film s psychological and mythic patterns important political issues and the roots of the film in paradise lost frankenstein detective fiction and previous science fiction cinema blade runner 2049 is a 2017 sequel to the 1982 movie blade runner about a world in which some human looking replicants have become dangerous so that other human looking replicants as well as humans have the job of hunting down the dangerous models and retiring destroying them both films have been widely hailed as among the greatest science fiction movies of all time and ridley scott director of the original blade runner has announced that there will be a third blade runner movie blade runner 2049 and philosophy is a collection of entertaining articles on both blade runner movies and on the spin off short films and blade runner novels by twenty philosophers representing diverse backgrounds and philosophical perspectives among the issues addressed in the book what does blade runner 2049 tell us about the interactions of state power and corporate power can machines ever become truly conscious or will they always lack some essential human qualities the most popular theory of personhood says that a person is defined by their memories so what happens when memories can be manufactured and inserted at will we already interact with non human decision makers via the internet when embodied ai becomes reality how can we know what is human and what is simulation does it matter do ai endowed human looking replicants have civil and political rights or can they be destroyed whenever real humans decide they are inconvenient the blade runner deckard harrison ford appears in both movies and is generally assumed to be human but some claim he may be a replicant what s the evidence on both sides is niander wallace the mad scientist cum evil corporate ceo in blade runner 2049 himself a replicant what motivates him what are the impacts of decision making ai entities on the world of business both blade runner and blade runner

since its release in 1982 ridley scott s blade runner based on philip k dick s novel do androids dream of electric sheep has remained a cult classic through its depiction of a futuristic los angeles its complex enigmatic plot and its underlying questions about the nature of human identity the blade runner experience the legacy of a science fiction classic examines the film in a broad context examining its relationship to the original novel the pc game the series of sequels and the many films influenced by its style and themes it investigates blade runner online fandom and asks how the film s future city compares to the present day los angeles and it revisits the film to pose surprising new questions about its characters and their world ridley scott s blade runner is widely regarded as a masterpiece of modern cinema and is regularly ranked as one of the great films of all time set in a dystopian future where the line between human beings and replicants is blurred the film raises a host of philosophical questions about what it is to be human the possibility of moral agency and freedom in created life forms and the capacity of cinema to make a genuine contribution to our engagement with these kinds of questions this volume of specially commissioned chapters systematically explores and addresses these issues from a philosophical point of view beginning with a helpful introduction the seven chapters examine the following questions how is the theme of death explored in blade runner and with what implications for our understanding of the human condition what can we learn about the relationship between emotion and reason from the depiction of the replicants in blade runner how are memory empathy and moral agency related in blade runner how does the style and mood of blade runner bear upon its thematic and philosophical significance is blade runner a meditation on the nature of film itself including a brief biography of the director and a detailed list of references to other writings on the film blade runner is essential reading for students indeed anyone interested in philosophy and film studies contributors colin allen peter atterton amy coplan david davies berys gaut stephen mulhall c d c reeve the 1992 release of the director s cut only confirmed what the international film cognoscenti have know all along ridley scott s blade runner based on philip k dick s brilliant and troubling sf novel do androids dream of electric sheep still rules as the most visually dense thematically challenging and influential sf film ever made future noir is the story of that triumph the making of blade runner was a seven year odyssey that would test the stamina and the imagination of writers producers special effects wizards and the most innovative art directors and set designers in the industry a fascinating look at the ever shifting interface between commerce and the art that is modern hollywood future noir is the intense intimate anything but glamerous inside account of how the work of sf s most uncompromising author was transformed into a critical sensation a commercial success and a cult classic ridley scott s dystopian classic blade runner an adaptation of philip k dick s novel do androids dream of electric sheep combines noir with science fiction to create a groundbreaking cyberpunk vision of urban life in the twenty first century with replicants on the run the rain drenched los angeles which blade runner imagines is a city of oppression and enclosure but a city in which transgression and disorder can always erupt graced by stunning sets lighting effects costumes and photography blade runner succeeds brilliantly in depicting a world at once uncannily familiar and startlingly new in his innovative and nuanced reading scott bukatman details the making of blade runner and its steadily improving fortunes following its release in 1982 he situates the film in terms of debates about postmodernism which have informed much of the criticism devoted to it but argues that its tensions derive also from the quintessentially twentieth century modernist experience of the city as a space both imprisoning and liberating in his foreword to this special edition published to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the bfi film classics series bukatman suggests that blade runner s visual complexity allows it to translate successfully to the world of high definition and on demand home cinema he looks back to the science fiction tradition of the early 1980s and on to the key changes in the final version of the film in 2007 which risk diminishing the sense of instability created in the original
