in trust living spontaneously and embracing life one of the greatest spiritual teachers of the twentieth century discusses the importance of believing in our own ideals and truths and not giving in to the powerful societal influences that govern the world we live in times where trust in old institutions and their relevance to our lives have evaporated religions ideologies political systems morals family marriages none of these traditional institutions are working anymore osho's insight is that the institutions of the past have used the false substitutes of belief and faith as control mechanisms of society whereas authentic trust comes from within belief systems are imposed from the outside by religious and social institutions osho encourages readers to rediscover and reclaim the innate trust that is born with each individual no more demands to trust in an other no more faith and belief with their demands that we drop all questioning and doubt but rather a willingness to honor our questions and doubts so fully that they will lead us to our unique authentic and individual truth osho challenges readers to examine and break free of the conditioned belief systems and prejudices that limit their capacity to enjoy life in all its richness he has been described by the sunday times of london as one of the 1000 makers of the 20th century and by sunday mid day india as one of the ten people along with gandhi nehru and buddha who have changed the destiny of india since his death in 1990 the influence of his teachings continues to expand reaching seekers of all ages in virtually every country of the world

one of the greatest spiritual thinkers of the twentieth century explores the physical and emotional intimacies of men and women in sex matters sex to superconsciousness sex matters to us all the osho approach to sex begins with an understanding of how important love is in our lives while at the same time acknowledges that the journey into love cannot exclude our innate biological energies with this perspective it becomes clear that the tendency for religions and for society in general to associate sex with sin and morality has been a great misfortune sex matters begins by deconstructing the layers of sexual repression that the condemnation of sex has inflicted on humans throughout the book in response to questions about everything from jealousy to premature ejaculation the role of intimacy and the differences between men and women osho proposes a vision that embraces sex as a fundamental gift from nature we learn how orgasm offers a glimpse of timelessness thoughtlessness and pure awareness biology s way of pointing toward the consciousness that helps us to understand ourselves finally we are presented with a clear choice a repressed sexuality that leads to pornography perversion and a stunted humanity or a playful respectful and relaxed innocence that supports us in becoming fulfilled and whole as nature intended osho challenges readers to examine and break free of the conditioned belief systems and prejudices that limit their capacity to enjoy life in all its richness he has been described by the sunday times of london as one of the 1000 makers of the 20th century and by sunday mid day india as one of the ten people along with gandhi nehru and buddha who have changed the destiny of india since his death in 1990 the influence of his teachings continues to expand reaching seekers of all ages in virtually every country of the world this quest has been going on for countless lives sometimes you call it the search for truth but you have never known truth so how can you lose it and sometimes you search for god but your meeting with him has never taken place so how can you be separated from him you go in search to the temples to the mosques to kashi and to mecca you knock on every door you come across in the hope you will find what you have lost but as long as you do not know exactly what it is you have lost your search cannot be fulfilled love is the ability to experience love is sensitivity love is the experience in which all your impurities are washed away and you throw open all your doors all your gates then whosoever stands at your door is no longer an enemy or a friend but a beloved and you open your door to him when you begin to feel the whole world is yours when you begin to see the beloved in whosoever comes to your door when you no longer see strangers or enemies when you begin to see only friends everywhere when this phenomenon takes place in you know that you have found love this is one of the most fascinating talks by osho on meditation we gain a deeper understanding and an actual experience about meditation through this talk which brings us into a space of meditation he describes meditation as the very center of his teaching efforts the very womb out of which one is going to be re born to say something about meditation is a contradiction in terms it is something which you can have which you can be but by its very nature you cannot say what it is still efforts have been made to convey it in some way even if only a fragmentary partial understanding arises out of it that is more than one can expect from a a series of talks from misery to enlightenment by osho
