to many people the law stands in opposition to the gospel while it may be possible to read paul's epistles this way the book of deuteronomy will not allow this reading like the book of romans in the new testament deuteronomy provides the most systematic and sustained presentation of theology in the old testament and like the gospel of john it represents mature theological reflection on god's great acts of salvation in this case associated with the exodus of israel from egypt the gospel according to moses begins and ends with the gracious work of god for undeserving subjects in a book that consists largely of moses' farewell sermons to his congregation israel's first pastor seeks to inspire his congregation to a life of faith and godliness in response to god's great mercy unfortunately for many christians deuteronomy is a dead book because we have lost sight of the gospel the essays in this collection arise from a larger project driven by a passion to recover for christians the life-giving message of the old testament in general and the gospel according to moses in particular the meditations in this volume cover a wide range of topics from explorations into the origins of deuteronomy to considerations of the ethical and homiletical relevance of the book for christians today anyone who has studied paul knows that probably the most complex problem he develops is his view of the law and its purpose the beauty of raisanen's work is that he recognizes and respects this complexity without himself becoming too dense to understand raisanen finds that paul's radicalized negative criticism of the law is peculiar to him unparalleled in the nt and without precedent in jewish thought with careful patient examination of various contexts raisanen leads his readers to see that paul has an oscillating even inconsistent view of the law this book is well written in clear readable english it is an important book recommended to any serious student of paul its strength is in raisanen's willingness to abandon preconceptions of what paul's view on the law should be according to some consistent plan and in allowing paul to speak for himself mary ann getty in the catholic biblical quarterly 1985 no 47

the jerusalem talmud probably originated in tiberias in the school of johanan ben nappaha it is a compilation of teachings of the schools of tiberias sepphoris and caesarea it is written largely in a western aramaic dialect that differs from its babylonian counterpart
