in the style of clement moore s well known poem the firefighters from firehouse one receive a visit from ol sergeant nick who leaves them lots of surprises including a shiny new pumper truck while they are putting out a fire on christmas eve in this version of the famous poem santy pays an ozark family a visit on christmas eve with his pet raccoon and gifts of musical instruments for a fine backwoods jig

in this parody of the famous poem by clement c moore santa claus is a salty sailor who pays a visit to those on board a ship in fisherman s bay on christmas

a version told in the gullah dialect of the familiar poem about the annual christmas visit of santa claus in which sandy claw is represented by buh rabbit this abbreviated board book edition is perfect introduction to the classic tale take the classic story of jolly old st nicholas place it in a louisiana bayou setting dress santa claus in muskrat from his head to his foot pile his skiff high with toys and hitch it to eight friendly alligators the result is this modern classic fifty years after its first appearance cajun night before christmas has sold more than one million copies and has served as the model for pelican s ongoing best selling night before christmas series the cajun night before christmas has been a part of louisiana s holiday traditions since it was first published in 1973 a delight to both young and old with its rustic full color illustrations and lively story it has become a timeless addition to holiday celebrations far beyond south louisiana reaching all corners of the country with its charming presentation of christmas on the bayou and the break out star of gaston the green nosed alligator conceived by j b kling jr cajun night before christmas originally appeared as a christmas message from bergeron plymouth company of new orleans under the pseudonymous byline trosclair the story won a clio award in 1967 from the academy of television and radio advertising brought to life by the talented james rice the humorous illustrations of a colorful bayou christmas have been nationally recognized as a classic in its genre santa claus s face has lost its glow because of all the things the author has put him through in other books and so he takes his revenge grown from a special seed fuzzy a huge strong friendly creature becomes lyn s constant companion until the cold winds blow when wise woman magee is trapped into nursing a goblin back to health she only escapes with the help of her children whose snap apple night costumes frighten the goblins a miniature book to hang on your tree hanger provided the cajun night before christmas has been a part of louisiana s holiday traditions since it was first published now more than forty five years later a new generation is discovering the charm of gaston the green nosed alligator first conceived by j b kling jr writing as trosclair the clio award winning sales jingle for the bergeron plymouth company in new orleans was based on the clement moore poem the exclusive rights were purchased by pelican publishing company and the illustrations of then fledgling artist james rice brought the story to life beloved master storyteller colleen salley narrated the read along cd radio personality and voice talent tommy joe breaux became the voice behind the recordings at city park and on the audio version of the adventures of gaston the book also created what has become the largest segment at pelican publishing the children s book division with the passing of publisher dr milburn calhoun and his wife nancy calhoun illustrator james rice and the loss of colleen salley the people behind the creation of the story are mostly gone what remains is a long legacy of delight each year at the celebration in the oaks light show featuring the classic cabin from the story dedicated staff from pelican publishing collect memories of attendees as they flow through the premiere preview parties from now grown children who remember it as the first louisiana tale they ever heard to young parents who laugh about a non louisiana spouse reading it to their children in full blown cajun accent the book is universally loved and remembered teachers talk about how they use it in the classroom business people mention they send it to out of state clients and children laugh as they try to mimic the dialect that has all but disappeared from everyday life the classic tale has been interpreted in gingerbread houses in competitions as far away as California and in cakes at the edible book competition at Noma in New Orleans for years the miniature book ornaments have appeared on Christmas trees across the country as a reminder of a faraway Louisiana home even the New York Times praised the lilt the humor and the rough hewn drawings of the Cajun tale at Pelican Publishing a huge portrait of Gaston and his bearded friend hangs in the boardroom watching over each new author and illustrator that joins the family

Gaston the green nosed alligator heads offshore dons a hard hat and steel toes and helps pipeliners lay a pipeline a version in Cajun dialect of the famous poem the night before Christmas set in a Louisiana bayou after six children's books by legendary writer and illustrator Jim Rice Gaston finally comes to life this plush cuddly and cute stuffed animal is as close as any loyal reader of the Gaston series would like to get to a real live green nosed alligator Gaston was actually born over twenty years ago as one of the alligators that helps Santa save Christmas in the landmark Pelican title Cajun Night Before Christmas realizing the potential for this precocious character Rice brought Gaston back for his very own series of books first the debut Gaston the Green Nosed Alligator and in his following adventures Gaston goes to Texas Gaston goes to the Kentucky Derby Gaston goes to Mardi Gras and even Gaston drills an offshore oil well and Gaston lays an offshore pipeline considering that Gaston will probably always be remembered for his role in helping Santa save Christmas Gaston comes complete with Santa cap and a bushy white beard ready to help make your Christmas merry and bright

Forget Dancer Prancer Comet and Vixen Good Clement wherever he is will not be gnashing his teeth New York Times book review take the classic story of Jolly Old St Nicholas place it in a Louisiana bayou setting dress Santa Claus in muskrat from his head to his foot pile his skiff high with toys and hitch it to eight friendly alligators the result is this modern classic fifty years after its first appearance Cajun Night Before Christmas has sold more than one million copies and has served as the model for Pelican's ongoing best selling Night Before Christmas series the Cajun Night Before Christmas has been a part of Louisiana's holiday traditions since it was first published in 1973 a delight to both young and old with its rustic full color illustrations and lively story it has become a timeless addition to holiday celebrations far beyond south Louisiana reaching all corners of the country with its charming presentation of Christmas on the bayou and the break out star of Gaston the green nosed alligator conceived by J B Kling Jr Cajun Night Before Christmas originally appeared as a Christmas message from Bergeron Plymouth Company of New Orleans under the pseudonymous byline Trosclair the story won a Clio Award in 1967 from the Academy of Television and Radio Advertising brought to life by the talented James Rice the humorous illustrations of a colorful bayou Christmas have been nationally recognized as a classic in its genre featuring eight pages of curated content released from the Pelican Archives this special fiftieth anniversary edition showcases the rich legacy of storytelling within our state and the far reach that a humble or not so humble gator has had on Cajun culture Louisiana and the entire country
