first silesian school 1625 75 the second silesian school 1650 1700 the c otthtger ain 1767 1800 storm and stress 176787 the berlin jena romantic school 1798 1801 the heidelberg romantic school 1806 08 and young germany 1830 48 with more or less propriety and with that the list of schools is about complete goethe and schiller established a classical school 1794 1805 at weimar only in the sense that they wrote poetry of a high order which found many imitators and many more readers and admirers but it is with a school as with a triangle or with jealousy it requires three parts to complete it and then a school is unlike a triangle or jealousy in that more than three parts will tend to make it more nearly perfect more enduring and effective in the case of the twenty eight poets grouped under this rubric we have to do with a number of men each one of whom went his own way and accomplished something that makes him unforgettable they lived in the age of romanticism and were not merely influenced originally published in 1955 this book discusses romantic principles and their interpretation in literary practice supported by the documentation with translations of numerous quotations from the writings of the romantic authors themselves the emphasis lies on the evolution of romantic ideas and practices in germany in the establishment and formulation of romantic theory by its first exponents
