The purpose of the book is to provide a collection of perspectives from various parts of Africa on what scholars in religion studies are currently engaged with. Whether it refers to topics or methodology, each chapter is written from the perspective of a scholar working within a particular context on a particular theme or topic related to religion studies. Several methodologies have been implemented in each contribution to the book; each contribution applies a different methodology for the purpose of investigating a specific topic or research theme. In general, the majority of the contributions follow a method of critical literature review as applied to a specific field. The book is not intended to provide an exhaustive list of all possible topics and themes addressed in current research in Africa from a decolonized perspective. The book gives voice to African scholars who exhibit their scholarly work as related to religion studies. Topics addressed include curriculum design and pedagogical approaches in teaching religion studies, the relation between religion and culture in an African context, religion and health, religion and gender, interreligious relations in Africa, religion and ecology, and religion and mission.

The Truth Bible Study Book helps disciples answer the question: What does a disciple believe? Many people will claim Christianity, but do they really know what they believe? Do they know the doctrines of the faith? The Truth challenges group members to take a deeper dive into six core doctrines: God as Triune Creator, the reality of sin, the person and work of Christ, the kingdom of God, and the church. This disciple-making resource emphasizes practice and mentoring for group settings of multiple sizes to explore the primary doctrines of a disciple of Jesus. Like all the releases in the Disciples Path Series, The Truth uses teaching questions, conversation exercises, and individual study to facilitate transformational discipleship. The sessions include: 1. The doctrine of God, 2. The doctrine of man, 3. The person and work of Christ, 4. The kingdom of God, 5. The doctrine of the Holy Spirit, 6. The doctrine of the church. The study includes an introduction to the weekly session topic, guided prayer options, and scripture focus with text and narrative explanation that drives the weekly meeting. Also included each week are discussion questions and group exercises that reinforce the primary teaching points of each topic. Individual study and out-of-group activities have all been crafted to help users take their next step as disciples of Christ. These optional activities include, but are not limited to, reading plans, prayer exercises, personal study, and journaling. Features: Bible study format content and activities created and written by practicing disciple makers; individual exercises to provide opportunities to practice discipleship; a personal Bible study plan that benefits understanding the essential doctrines of the Christian faith; facilitate transformation through modeling and practice; use as a handbook for one-on-one or two-on-one discipleship situations; lead effectively; requires minimal leader preparation and allows the facilitator to model what it means to be a disciple; initiate an intentional discipleship path with individuals or groups.
