metaphorically speaking the nineteenth century english bildungsroman dealing with the principle of identity formation parallels victorian fiction as a whole revealing the completion of its own formation which began in the eighteenth century significantly the most important and popular victorian novels are bildungsromane in which authors construct or rather reconstruct their own life experiences as formative processes this book shows that the bildungsroman has a development history is a specific literary system and consists of a thematic and narrative pattern it details the entrance of this newly established fictional tradition into victorian culture and literature through carlyle s threefold literary reception of the novel of formation and its subsequent flourishing and complexity in this respect a number of novelistic works are scrutinized and each faces the question as to whether its thematic and narrative perspectives fit the pattern and shape of the bildungsroman

the junior novel is a 144 page retelling of the blockbuster film the sorcerer s apprentice featuring an eight page full colored photo insert with stills from the movie this is sure to be a must for fans of the soon to be hit film

this book establishes a vector of methodology in the approach to a particular type of fictional discourse namely the english bildungsroman the novel of identity formation its wide ranging critical perspectives are also useful to anyone concerned with first of all european and english novelistic genres but also to those interested in theoretical perspectives of modern fiction studies in general as well as in certain aspects of western literature as a developing tradition
