a guidebook to contemplative prayer evelyn underhill was one of the greatest spiritual writers of the twentieth century her legacy as a pivotal figure in christian mysticism endures today for her true mysticism is first of all active and practical an organic life process in which the whole self is engaged rather than simply an intellectual apprehension she translated the medieval spiritual guidebook called the cloud of unknowing written by an anonymous english monk this book counsels the young student to seek god not through knowledge and intellection faculty of the human mind but through intense contemplation motivated by love and stripped of all thought this text is still used in most courses that explore the experience of god called mysticism and still attracts contemporary spiritual seekers so it s really about moving from the intellect to the heart excerpt chapter three how the work of this book shall be wrought and of the worthiness of it before all other works lift up thine heart unto god with a meek stirring of love and mean himself and none of his goods and thereto look the loath to think on aught but himself so that nought work in thy wit nor in thy will but only himself and do that in thee is to forget all the creatures that ever god made and the works of them so that thy thought nor thy desire be not directed nor stretched to any of them neither in general nor in special but let them be and take no heed to them this is the work of the soul that most pleaseth god all saints and angels have joy of this work and hasten them to help it in all their might all fiends be furious when thou thus dost and try for to defeat it in all that they can all men living in earth be wonderfully holpen of this work thou wottest not how yea the souls in purgatory be eased of their pain by virtue of this work thyself art cleansed and made virtuous by no work so much and yet it is the lightest work of all when a soul is helped with grace in sensible list and soonest done but else it is hard and wonderful to thee for to do let not therefore but travail therein till thou feel list for at the first time when thou dost it thou findest but a darkness and as it were a cloud of unknowing thou knowest not what saving that thou feelest in thy will a naked intent unto god this darkness and this cloud is howsoever thou dost betwixt thee and thy god and letteth thee that thou mayest neither see him clearly by light of understanding in thy reason nor feel him in sweetness of love in thine affection and therefore shape thee to bide in this darkness as long as thou mayest evermore crying after him that thou lovest for if ever thou shalt feel him or see him as it may be here it behoveth always to be in this cloud in this darkness and if thou wilt busily travail as i bid thee i trust in his mercy that thou shalt come thereto
