worldwide growing public atheism in the west and his own mortality rodriguez s stylish new memoir the first book in a decade from the pulitzer prize finalist moves from jerusalem to silicon valley from moses to liberace from lance armstrong to mother teresa rodriguez is a homosexual who writes with love of the religions of the desert that exclude him he is a passionate unorthodox christian who is always mindful of his relationship to judaism and islam because of a shared belief in the god who revealed himself within an ecology of emptiness and at the center of this book is a consideration of women their importance to rodriguez s spiritual formation and their centrality to the future of the desert religions only a mind as elastic and refined as rodriguez s could bind these threads together into this wonderfully complex tapestry every faith in the world is based on fabrication that is the definition of faith acceptance of that which we imagine to be true that which we cannot prove every religion describes god through metaphor allegory and exaggeration from the early egyptians through modern sunday school metaphors are a way to help our minds process the unprocessable the problems arise when we begin to believe literally in our own metaphors religious allegory has become a part of the fabric of reality and living in that reality helps millions of people cope and be better people volume 1 translations of the bible take place in the midst of tension between politics ideology and power with the theological authority of the book as god s word not focusing on the process of translating is stating the obvious inclinations fluency and zeitgeist play as serious a role as translators person faith and worldview as do their vocabulary poetics and linguistic capacity history has seen countless retranslations of the bible what are the considerations according to which biblical retranslations are being produced in current 21st century contexts from retranslations of the hebrew bible to those of the old and new testaments to mutual influences of christian and jewish translational traditions the papers collected here all deal with the question of what is to be re gained with the production of a new translation where at times many a previous one has already existed volume 2 times are changing and with them the norms and notions of correctness despite a wide spread belief that the bible as a sacred original only allows one translation if any new translations are constantly produced and published for all kinds of audiences and purposes the various paradigms marked by the theological political and historical correctness of the time group and identity and bound to certain ethics and axiomatic norms are reflected in almost every current translation project like its predecessor the current volume brings together scholars working at the intersection of translation studies bible studies and theology all of which share a special point of interest concerning the status of the scriptures as texts fundamentally based on the act of translation and its recurring character it aims to breathe new life into bible translation studies unlock new perspectives and vistas of the field and present a bigger picture of how bible re translation works in society today
