for one or two semester courses in world history comparative history humanities and civilization as well as multicultural studies programs from a truly global perspective this two volume narrative tells the story of human events on the move the exciting event history of wars and politics booms and busts

the rise and fall of empires and more it also reaches beyond the events that have shaped world history to trace the broader development of human institutions and ideas as they evolve through time coverage of both events and broader trends is presented as part of major global movements through the lives of the people who lived them and as succinctly and vividly as possible thomas berry is one of the most eminent cultural historians of our time here he presents the culmination of his ideas and urges us to move from being a disrupting force on the earth to a benign presence this transition is the great work the most necessary and most ennobling work we will ever undertake berry s message is not one of doom but of hope he reminds society of its function particularly the universities and other educational institutions whose role is to guide students into an appreciation rather than an exploitation of the world around them berry is the leading spokesperson for the earth and his profound ecological insight illuminates the path we need to take in the realms of ethics politics economics and education if both we and the planet are to survive volume 1 discusses dogmatics the trinity the identity of god creation sin and christology in this book among other sources we have compiled key thoughts and material that were dictated to alice bailey starting in the 1920s and continuing through the 1960s from the tibetan master djwhal khul as you see in the references she wrote eighteen books which were published by lucis publishing company new york djwhal khul shared this material from another dimension giving us a new perspective we highly recommend these books because djwhal khul is in a higher vibrational dimension working and aiding us in an enlightened evolution what we have added to this book is some of our thoughts about the energies to which khul refers we know very little about these energies and this material presents a challenge to us in our evolutionary sojourn each of us must pursue our understanding and knowledge about these energies this is our goal and our reason for writing this book good travels to you this book gathers a set of reflections on the gift of beauty and the passion of being there is something surprising about beauty that we receive and that moves the passion of being in us the book takes issue with an ambiguous attitude to beauty among some who proclaim their advanced aesthetic authenticity beauty seems bland and lacks the more visceral thrill of the ugly indeed the excremental we crave what disrupts and provokes us not what gives delight or even consoles by contrast attention is given to how beauty arouses enigmatic joy in us and we enjoy an elemental rapport with it as other surprised by beauty our breath is taken away but we are more truly there with the beautiful when we are taken outside of ourselves we are first receivers of the gift of surprise and only then perceivers and conceivers my attention to the passion of being stresses a patience a receptivity to what is other what happens is not first our construction there is something given something awakening something delighting something energizing something of invitation to transcendence the theme is amplified in diverse reflections on life and its transient beauty on soul music and its relation to self on the shine on things given in creation on beauty and schopenhauer's dark origin on creativity and the dynamis in paul weiss's creative ventures on redemption in romanticism in the thought of stanley cavell on theater as a between or metaxu on redeeming laughter and its connection with the passion of being
