this volume introduces researchers to the leaders ideas and institutions of the keswick movement a strand of holiness teaching that was embraced by many evangelicals who came from the more calvinistic wing of protestantism especially anglicans baptists congregationalists and presbyterians the keswick movement is the most difficult of the three main holiness traditions to delineate unlike the wesleyan holiness and holiness pentecostal traditions the keswick movement has not gone through a definitive period of careful theological refining and institutional boundary setting the criteria for originality priority and authenticity used in textual criticism the study of the synoptic problem and historical jesus research share one basic similarity they were all designed to distinguish a prior tradition from its later developments all these areas of research investigate the transmission process which involves both preservation and alteration the sets of criteria used in one area are thus analogous to the sets of criteria used in the other two areas this assumption can be confirmed by observing numerous instances of such similarity in these sets of criteria on the basis of this assumption many other instances of similarity may be newly attained by adapting the set of criteria used in one area for use in the other two areas the sets of criteria for these three areas of research can be further generalized into a mother set of criteria which will provide us with a degree of methodological unification in these disciplines
