the rapidly growing chinese protestant church faces a significant challenge it must adapt itself to the unique dimensions of chinese culture leaving behind the trail of old missionary theology and molding an authentically chinese approach to biblical interpretation and christian life an approach that works within both the traditional and the contemporary dimensions of chinese society rising from an extraordinary 2003 sino nordic conference on chinese contextual theology which brought chinese university scholars and church theologians together for the first time christianity and chinese culture addresses ways in which the church in china is responding to that challenge the essays collected here highlight both the stunning complexities confronting protestant christianity in china and its remarkable potential this is a most timely publication on the current issues and research on christianity and chinese culture in the prc previously unavailable in english the list of scholars in the collection reads like a who s who in christian studies in china including both secular academics and christian theologians the final part on theological reconstruction is of particular interest given its importance for the protestant churches in the last decade this book should be on the shelf of any scholar interested in the subject edmond tang director east asian christian studies university of birmingham uk contributors zhao dunhua zhang qingxiong diane b obenchain svein rise he guanghu wan junren lo ping cheung you bin he jianming lai pan chiu jorgen skov sorensen jyri komulainen gao shining zhuo xinping notto r thelle yang huilin thor strandenaes li pingye vladimir fedorov wang xiaochao choong chee pang zhang minghui li qulind fredrik fillman birger nygaard deng fucun chen xun gerald h anderson zhu xiaohong sun yi chen yongtao lin manhong wu xiaoxin

the first intellectual history of interreligious dialogue a relatively new and significant dimension of human religiosity in recent decades organizations committed to interreligious or interfaith dialogue have proliferated both in the western and non western worlds why how so and what exactly is interreligious dialogue these are the touchstone questions of this book the first major history of interreligious dialogue in the modern age thomas albert howard narrates and analyzes several key turning points in the history of interfaith dialogue before examining in the conclusion the contemporary landscape while many have theorized about and practiced interreligious dialogue few have attended carefully to its past connecting its emergence and spread with broader developments in modern history interreligious dialogue grasped in light of careful critical attention to its past holds promise for helping people of diverse faith backgrounds to foster cooperation and knowledge of one another while contributing insight into contemporary global religious pluralism though women have been objects more often than subjects of interreligious dialogue they have nevertheless contributed in significant ways to the dialogue just as the dialogue has also contributed to their own self understanding this volume the fifth in the interreligious dialogue series brings together historical critical and constructive approaches to the role of women in the dialogue between religions these approaches deal with concrete examples of women s involvement in dialogue critical reflections on the representation of women in dialogue and the important question of what women might bring to the dialogue together they open up new avenues for reflection on the nature and purpose of interreligious dialogue in the emerging fields of religious and interreligious peacebuilding the question of monitoring and evaluation is a challenging yet necessary process the need to develop comprehensive yet fitting evaluation models for religious and interreligious peacebuilding is not only important for donor interests but also critical as a means of documenting and learning for peacebuilders themselves theories and best practices in monitoring and evaluation have become prevalent in many fields yet the amount of literature on evaluating intercultural and especially religious and interreligious projects remains scant in comparison this volume offers a unique contribution that not only looks at several of the challenges and implications faced by religious and interreligious peacebuilders but also provides concrete examples of new models and tools for monitoring and evaluating religious and interreligious peacebuilding projects in doing so this volume serves as a tool and point of reference for individuals and organizations developing and implementing interreligious dialogue and peacebuilding projects
