my colleagues and i have been discussing various aspects of your story and have agreed that your book is well written with an absorbing narrative we see potential in the work we believe that it deserves a chance to reach the general readership commended by the commissioning editor of olympia publishers 1 13 2020 james houghton these days in comparison to decades ago do older ones actually prioritize the benefit of cordial relationship with their juvenile ones by telling stories which tightens the cod of love existing amongst them thereby providing for their feeble minds the needed psychological equipment for a better life void of ordeal stories that help boost their creativity sense of reasoning as well as their outlook on life setting them on the right track of all remarkable virtues while unveiling their minds to perceive life from an untainted perspective all we have mostly are those who occupy themselves with updates of their flamboyance or claim struggling to make ends meet and etch fatigue on their faces while returning from their daily activities oblivious of the psychological well being of their juvenile ones this melancholy is what the little gardener life s lessons in a nutshell sets to evict from our mindset it encircles the well being of a juvenile character little naphtali who learned the best lessons a potential modest lady should from storytelling and nature due to the grief which overwhelmed her by the misfortune which befell one of her gems she vouched to remain pure all her life never to permit the slightest thought of impurity not only will this piece of cake keep you agitated or instigate you to see sense in waste but also stair you to learn from and appreciate the gift of nature it also tightens the cod of love existing between older ones and juveniles what you ll find most intriguing about this is how it encapsulates ancient tales which our forefathers told us in a bid to instill in our then fragile hearts the remarkable essentials for a blissful life seat tight for a jaw dropping experience
