unaware that she is the illegitimate daughter of the duke of cley caroline is summoned from her vicarage home to live at the duke s stately mansion and discovers jealousy snobbery illicit passion and life threatening intrigue in spring 1941 when london is under attack gwen davis escapes the city for devon where she will instruct young girls in growing crops for the home front there she meets two people who will change her life forever raley a canadian officer awaiting posting to the front with his men and jane a frail but free spirit whose fiancé is missing in action through them gwen comes to understand the unbelievable joy and the unbearable risks of love called exquisite by the new york times this beautifully nuanced novel received rave reviews around the world memoir by the chinese american writer who grew up in san francisco in the 1950s lost gardens of the world is an illustrated romantic look at the great gardens of history that are now lost the lost garden is an eloquent portrait of the losses incurred as we struggle to hold on to our passions the novel begins with the family of zhu yinghong whose father zhu zuyan was imprisoned in the early days of chiang kai shek s rule zhu zuyan spends his days luxuriating in his lotus garden which he builds according to his own desires forever under suspicion he indulges as much as he can in circumscribed pleasures though they drain the family fortune eventually the entire household is sold including the lotus garden the novel then swings to modern day taipei where zhu yinghong falls for lin xigeng a real estate tycoon and playboy their cat and mouse courtship builds against the extravagant banquets and decadent entertainments of taipei s wealthy businessmen though the two ultimately marry their high styled romance dulls over time leading to a dangerous desperate quest to reclaim the enchantment of the lotus garden the author describes how he grew up as a chinese american in san francisco and how he came to use his writing to celebrate his family and his ethnic heritage this word perfect heartbreaking novel is set in early 1941 in britain when the war seems endless and perhaps hopeless london is on fire from the blitz and a young woman gardener named gwen davis flees from the burning city for the devon countryside she has volunteered for the land army and is to be in charge of a group of young girls who will be trained to plant food crops on an old country estate where the gardens have fallen into ruin also on the estate waiting to be posted is a regiment of canadian soldiers for three months the young women and men will form attachments living in a temporary rural escape no one will be more changed by the stay than gwen she will inspire the girls to restore the estate gardens fall in love with a soldier find her first deep friendship and bring a lost garden created for a great love back to life while doing so she will finally come to know herself and a life worth living reading group guide included
