in the new testament god promises eternal life for those who believe and have faith in his son jesus why should we believe it perhaps it is an illusion and a comforting dream set forth and perpetuated by a number of men called apostles more than two thousand years ago what evidence is there to support this most startling and significant promise well to paraphrase a well known saying seek and you will find god s promises are liberally sprinkled throughout the old as well as the new testament he has promised blessings things that are received but not deserved and mercy things that are not received but are deserved many times and in many ways his covenants with the old testament patriarchs are of such scale that they require study and contemplation to fully appreciate their meaning to them he promised land influence wealth and heirs and that they would be the ancestors of the promised messiah some are truly astounding for example abraham s wife sarah would give birth to the long promised genetic heir even though both were more than ninety years old the same is true for the special baptism of the apostles with the promised holy spirit on pentecost other promises in both testaments are what i have termed the read over type that are expressed in such a way in the text that we may pass by them with little note we need to read more carefully this book looks at some certainly not all of god s promises to us they are rich and abundant in the word they touch every aspect of our lives all have been fulfilled except one christ s return it is my goal to increase the readers confidence in that event and in the hope of everlasting life because god is faithful and just and never lies
