This book discusses terrorism and the rise of Hindu nationalism in contemporary India and examines how this movement has become a threat to democracy in the country. The work analyses the rise of Hindu nationalism culminating in the success of Narendra Modi's Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), the political arm of the movement, in the 2019 Indian national elections. It offers an accessible account of the complexities and subtleties of Hindu nationalism and the dangers it poses to India's pluralistic democracy and secularism. A major theme of the book is the role that terrorism has played in the rise of Hindu nationalism, a factor often underplayed or ignored in other studies, and it also challenges the widespread belief that terrorism is largely an Islamic phenomenon. Employing a cross-disciplinary approach, the book is highly relevant to both academics and policymakers. Given India's importance as a major global economic and military power, this book will be of interest to students of terrorism and political violence, South Asian history, Indian politics, and international relations, as well as policymakers.

Can humans flourish without destroying the earth? In this book, experts on many of the world's major and minor religious traditions address the question of human and earth flourishing in dialogue with one another.

This book sheds light on religiously motivated extremism and violence in South Asia, a phenomenon which ostensibly poses critical and unique challenges to the peace, security, and governance not only of the region but also of the world at large. The book is distinctive in so far as it reexamines conventional wisdom held about religious extremism in South Asia and departs from the literature which centres its analyses on Islamic militancy based on the questions and assumptions of the West's war on terror. This volume also offers a comprehensive analysis of new extremist movements and how their emergence and success places existing theoretical frameworks in the study of religious extremism into question. It further examines topical issues including the study of social media and its impact on the evolution and operation of violent extremism. The book also analyses grassroots and innovative non-state initiatives aimed to counter extremist ideologies through case studies focusing on Bangladesh, India, Pakistan, and Sri Lanka. This collection examines extremist materials, methods of political mobilisation and recruitment processes, and maps the interconnected nature of sociological change with the ideological transformations of extremist movements.

Authoritarian populism and bovine political economy in Modi's India: This book analyses how the twin forces of Hindu nationalism and neoliberalism unfold in India's bovine economy, revealing their often devastating material and economic impact on the country's poor. This book is a rare in-depth study of India's bovine economy under Narendra Modi's authoritarian populism. This is an economy that throws up a central paradox: on the one hand, an entrenched and aggressive Hindu nationalist politics is engaged in violently protecting the cow, disciplining those who do not sufficiently respect and revere it; on the other hand, India houses and continuously promotes one of the world's largest corporate-controlled beef export economies that depends on the slaughter of millions of bovines every year. The book offers an original analysis of this scenario to show how Modi's authoritarian populist regime has worked to reconcile the two by simultaneously promoting a virulent Hindu nationalism that seeks to turn India into a Hindu state while also pushing neoliberal economic policies favouring corporate capital and elite class interests within and beyond the bovine economy. The book brings out the adverse impacts of these political-economic processes on the lives and livelihoods of millions of poor indians in countryside and city in addition it identifies emerging weaknesses in modi s authoritarian populism highlighting the potential for progressive counter mobilisation it will be of interest to scholars in the fields of development studies south asia studies critical agrarian studies as well as scholars with a general interest in political economy contemporary authoritarian populism and social movements
