if you have been diagnosed with prostate cancer you owe it to yourself to become informed about the disease and to know all your treatment options the good news is there has been great medical progress in recent years and prostate cancer is now a highly treatable disease for most patients who are diagnosed early the choice of treatment most often comes down to radiation versus radical surgery either with or without some form of hormonal therapy this book provides the latest medical data and explains why more men are now avoiding surgery and instead choosing state of the art radiation therapy such as seed implants and imrt intensity modulated radiation therapy perhaps no other single moral issue today is as hotly contested or as divisive as sexuality offering a bold and hopeful vision of how christians and all people of goodwill can view this explosive topic ethicist christine gudorf proposes nothing less than a sweeping challenge to traditional christian teaching on sexual roles activities and relationships deftly drawing on scripture natural law historical and contemporary catholic and protestant theology the social sciences and significantly the lived experiences of today s women and men gudorf presents a carefully crafted and systematic reconstruction of christian sexual ethics her aim above all is to engender appreciation not rejection and shame of our bodies and our sexuality contending that body sex and pleasure are divine gifts revealing god s grace gudorf emphasizes the need to understand sexual desire as a positive good a source of love and commitment she further explores the relationship between sexuality and reproduction arguing that procreationism the assumption that the sole aim and ultimate end of sexuality must always be offspring is unjust and oppressive written with insight clarity and compassion body sex and pleasure is a provocative and compelling call to all women and men to reject the damaging influence of body soul dualism and ultimately to do justice to the incarnation the central revelations of scripture and human dignity
