the first biography of may sarton a brilliant revelation of the life and work of a literary figure who influenced her thousands of readers not only by her novels and poetry but by her life and her writings about it may sarton s career stretched from 1930 early sonnets published in poetry magazine to 1995 her journal at eighty two she wrote more than twenty novels and twenty five books of poems and journals the acclaimed biographer margot peters was given full access to sarton s letters journals and notes and during five years of research came to know sarton herself the complex woman and artist she gives us a compelling portrait of sarton the actress the poet the novelist the feminist the writer who struggled for literary acceptance she shows us beneath sarton s exhilarating irresistible spirit the needy courtier and seducer the woman whose creativity was propelled by the psychic drama she created in others we watch young may at age two as she is abruptly uprooted from her native belgium by world war i a child ignored both by her mother who was intent on her own artistic vision and reluctant to cope with a child and by her father obsessed with his academic research we see sarton as a young girl in america and then later at nineteen choosing a life in the theatre landing a job in eva le gallienne s civic repertory and gathering what would become a tight knit coterie of friends and lovers sarton beginning to write poetry and novels sarton making friends with elizabeth bowen and julian huxley erika and klaus mann virginia woolf the poet h d charming and enlisting them with her work her vitality her hunger for love driven by her need to conquer among her conquests bowen huxley and later his wife juliette we see her intense friendships with literary pals including muriel rukeyser her lover and louise bogan sarton s literary sibling who at once encouraged her and excluded her from a world in which bogan was a central figure we see sarton begin to create in the spiritual journals that inspired the devotion of readers the image of a strong independent woman who lived peacefully with solitude an image that contradicted the reality of her neediness loneliness and isolation as she pushed away loved ones with her demands and betrayals a fascinating portrait of one of our major literary figures a book that for the first time reveals the life that she herself kept hidden bassein examines the pervasive linkage between women s sexuality and death in western thought and literature and concludes that there is no reasonable basis for much of it she first explores how language reveals and reinforces the bond between women and death she then discusses traditional christianity as a vehicle for perpetuating this tie and demonstrates that negative attitudes and brutality associated with women find expression in otherwise commendable works of art the author examines nineteenth and twentieth century fiction and poetry to show the different ways writers have handled women in sexual situations bassein concludes that tracing the origins and prevalence of the automatic association and seeking alternatives help us recognize the irrational and unconscious tendencies that are at the basis of stereotype formation and tacit acceptance of brutality this edition includes 337 more entries bringing the total to over 1 400 thumbnail sketches of economists who have contributed to the literature over the past three centuries betty cannon is the first to explore the implications of sartrean philosophy for the freudian psychoanalytic tradition drawing upon sartre s work as well as her own experiences as a practicing therapist she shows that sartre was a fellow traveler who appreciated freud s psychoanalytic achievements but rebelled against the determinism of his metatheory the mind sartre argued cannot be reduced to a collection of drives and structures nor is it enslaved to its past as freud s work suggested sartre advocated an existentialist psychoanalysis based on human freedom and the self s ability to reshape its own meaning and value through the sartrean approach cannon offers a resolution to the crisis in psychoanalytic metatheory created by the current emphasis on relational needs by comparing sartrre with freud and influential post freudians like melanie klein otto kernber margaret mahler d w winnicott heinz kohut harry stack sullivan and jacques lacan she demonstrates why the sartrean model transcends the limitations of traditional freudian metatheory in the process she adds a new dimension to our understanding of sartrre and his place in twentieth century philosophy
