teaching literature unit based on the popular children's story The Outsiders

these post-reading activities for The Outsiders allow students to share their understanding of characters, plot, and settings of the novel. They have opportunities to write, draw, and perform based on what they've learned.

The book's response-centered approach engages the student with literature. It contains in-depth discussions of multicultural literature and the uses of drama and film in the classroom that will enhance the understanding of literature.

Features text in both the NRSV and NIV translations of the Bible. Years of reader evaluations yield a record of overwhelming positive teaching results. Teachers agree that the new International Lesson Annual gets highest marks for helping Christian educators in the classroom making scripture understood, relating scripture to contemporary living, and challenging students to respond with positive actions based on the Bible. Study foundations of America's leading ecumenical Bible educators and editors in the venerable Committee on Uniform Series. Easy-to-use design with tint boxes, thumb index, goals for learners, and a new pronunciation guide. Easy on the eyes, clear type. Combine this NRSV and NIV with any Bible translation and you have a multi-version parallel. Eight pages of Bible background, interpretation, and step-by-step lesson plans keyed to learner goals for each lesson make lesson preparation thorough without difficult and tedious research. In-depth quarterly Bible background and teacher enrichment articles. Complete index to background scriptures and additional helps such as maps, charts, or timelines. Preparing our heart section with Bible reading and reflection questions for the teacher's personal spiritual growth. New Continue the Journey section includes ideas for prayer, learner preparation for next week's session activities the learners can do during the coming week to live out what they have learned, and a suggested closing hymn and benediction edited by one of the nation's leading Christian educators, Dr. Nan Duerling.
