experiencing the passion of christ will give you a front row seat as christ s life unfolds you will be placed on the scene confronted up close with the painful events of the cross but you will also see the majestic glory found in the rest of the story archbishop alban goodier s j fills in the many blanks in the historical narratives about the passion of jesus christ with a riveting account based on history culture and his own deep spiritual insights he brings to life and unifies the many observations emotions and subtle and not so subtle actions that revolve around the person of god the son as he faces his most tragic and triumphant moment the author s unique approach intersperses scripture accounts with the commentary of an incisive narrator who sifts and judges from the span of hundreds of years he draws from the obvious as well as the obscure and finds supernatural meaning in the most mundane actions that surround the suffering christ in the hands of this writer the lord s few words accompanied by the author s commentary challenge contemporary believers as much as they did those who first followed in the footsteps of christ and his apostles the author was born in 1869 in lancashire northern england and educated at the prominent catholic college stonyhurst which has been the source of many english catholic politicians intellectuals and business people after a degree from the university of london he was ordained a jesuit in 1903 he served as archbishop of bombay from 1919 to 1926 and returned to england to write and serve as a chaplain until his death in 1939

this classic work of liberation theology explores the meaning of the cross both as it has been interpreted in the past and how it should be interpreted in the context of contemporary faith and circumstances these particular circumstances include the poverty and repression fear and violence under which so many of the world s people suffer today in such a world how can the cross be understood and preached and what are the consequences of that understanding the word of the cross is a living word crying out for reinterpretation as life takes new shape and expression reinterpreting the gospel was particularly compelling for matthew s church because his christians lived in a time of profound transition the passion of jesus then was not simply a story of suffering out of the past but a point of identification for the christians of matthew s own time for us twentieth century christians who also know the peculiar suffering and hope of living in an age that is both dying and being born the passion of jesus according to matthew has special meaning the details of the passion the material surroundings and circumstances are accepted from others though tested most of them on the spot in regard to those details the author would only say that it is strange how great at times is the divergence of opinion amongst scholars even on matters about which it would seem at first sight that agreement should be easily reached it would almost appear that once we depart from or attempt to add to the story of the passion as it is told by the evangelists we are liable to say what is open to question though for instance we may know the main streets in the jerusalem of that time yet the actual sites of the palaces of annas of caiphas of herod and of late even of pilate are by no means agreed upon while the scourging the crowning the crucifixion have been given different descriptions founded all on some substantial evidence frankly therefore the author has taken all these studies as secondary he has used them as he has needed them for the passion cannot be described without them but for the first source of his information he has relied on the four gospels themselves as in the study of the public life so here he has tried to keep his attention fixed on jesus christ our lord for whose sake alone the story of the passion is worth telling refusing so far as he has been able to be turned aside by any controversial question or discussion whatsoever he has asked himself how does the passion reveal christ to us what manner of man does he show himself during that ordeal what were his thoughts and feelings what was his soul and hence knowing that he is yesterday and to day and the same for ever what is the meaning of jesus crucified to me here and now we derive far more light for our purpose from the saints and from those who have written in the spirit of the saints such as augustine ludolph of saxony fra thomas of jesus and in another sense s catherine of siena love real and objective and the insight and interpretation that come of love are the only key to the passion certainly far more than learning for love alone opens our eyes that we may know him who endured it and why whatever we may know or not know about him the method therefore of this study has been to follow the evangelists as closely as possible reading between the lines of their narrative the harmony used has been that of tischendorf with but a few minor variations the streets of jerusalem were very narrow indeed some of them scarcely admitting men to walk six abreast when a camel lurched down them with his load on his back there was little room for anyone else though undoubtedly a crowd followed the passion which grew in numbers as the day went on yet no less certainly there were other crowds which stood aloof there was at least one crowd of sympathisers which s luke equally describes as a great multitude of people that followed him there were many more who looked on from their doors and windows or squatting on their shop counters with that indifference which only the east can show if the procession from the pretorium to calvary as seems not unlikely passed through the bazaar of the city probably business went on as usual for crowds such as these were nothing very strange and the day the eve of the great feast was an exceptionally busy day in jerusalem we are tempted to compare the suddenness of the passion and the success of its leaders to one of those sinister coups d etat which have captured nations and of which we have had examples in plenty in our own time all this we may assume and lay aside our main object is to study him round whom the story is gathered that if we can we may know him the better whatever may be our other mistakes and shortcomings in 1914 luisa writes in a letter to the now saint annibale m di francia i am finally sending you this handwritten copy of the hours of the passion of our lord jesus christ may it all be for his greater glory i have also enclosed a few pages where i describe the effects and the beautiful promises that jesus makes to everyone who meditates these hours of the passion i believe that if whoever meditates on them is a sinner he will convert if he is imperfect he will become perfect if he is holy he will become holier if he is tempted he will find victory if suffering he will find strength medicine and comfort in these hours if weak and poor he will find a spiritual food and a mirror in which to look at himself continually and so become beautiful and similar to jesus our model in a culture increasingly secular in its pursuits and indifferent to the voice of the church how may we ignite the fire for ministry that will bring the gospel to the world how can weary pastors be sustained amidst a climate of doubt and resistance for more than half a century three remarkable brothers have offered a vision that has inspired thousands in churches and seminaries today their message remains fresh and relevant as we enter a new millennium and for one reason the brothers torrance share a passion for christ the christ of the scriptures the christ of the historic nicene faith these essays distill the essence of their thought and shine with the clarity of their shared vision a passion for christ is a light of encouragement for ministers and lay people elsewhere these books show how several readers can proclaim the passion well rather than simply dividing the passion into the parts this book allows the evangelist s understanding of the passion to be heard and pondered you ll also find proclamation tips and suggestions for musical refrains acclamations and hymns the cover is suitable for use in the liturgy and the type and the use of sense lines allow for ease of proclamation the text of the english version is that of the revised u s lectionary the text of the spanish version corresponds to the mexican lectionary in this companion to devotions on the passion author paul thigpen takes readers on a 40 day journey through the heart rending last hours of jesus filled with key passages from scripture and thoughtful reflections thigpen also includes the vivid meditations of anne catherine emmerich and maria of agreda who long ago wrote about the harsh reality of jesus death on the cross readers will kneel with jesus in gethsemane stand before herod and pontius pilate experience the scourging at the pillar weep with mary on golgotha and watch in horror as christ is crucified finally readers will shout for grateful joy for the priceless gift god gives us in the sacrifice of his son the meditations in this book will probably rank high among many similar works which the contemplative love of jesus has produced but it is our duty here plainly to affirm that they have no pretensions whatever to be regarded as history they are but intended to take one of the lowest places among those numerous representations of the passion which have been given us by pious writers and artists and to be considered at the very utmost as the lenten meditations of a devout nun related in all simplicity and written down in the plainest and most literal language from her own dictation to these meditations she herself never attached more than a mere human value and never related them except through obedience and upon the repeated commands of the directors of her conscience this book was written from the meditations of the mystic stigmatist visionary and prophet augustinian nun who experienced numerous mystical revelations during her life this book tells about her visions of the last days of jesus christ his last supper the prayer in the garden the crowning of thorns the trial by pontius pilate the carrying of the cross the crucifixion and the dying on the cross and the resurrection of jesus christ the visions described in the book were highly detailed and realistic which made the book very popular among the christian around the world x000d x000d x000d
