this book is an introduction to three questions on love according to st thomas aquinas summa theologiae i ii qq 26 28 these three questions reflect on the nature of love q 26 the causes of love q 27 and the effects of love q 28 it is thus an introduction to the entire phenomenon of love both as a bodily passion and an act of the will the purpose is to present the thomistic and broadly scholastic account of human and divine love from a philosophical and theological perspective it aims to be a theological and philosophical study of the topic useful both for a graduate professional audience as part of an undergraduate or graduate course and perhaps for the educated reader the thesis of the book is that contrary to contemporary conceptions not all loves are created equal some loves perfect us and some loves corrupt us the worth of a love depends on its object and end st thomas thus presents an objective and teleological account of human and divine love that is of philosophical and theological interest the method is broadly exegetical presenting a careful reading of the text and supplying the philosophical and theological background which the text of aquinas assumes the scope of the work is limited to three questions st i ii qq 26 28 references to interpretative disputes of aquinas and references to further resources in the secondary literature will be mostly limited to the footnotes making the body of the text accessible to more readers

our lord invites us to meditate continuously on the last 24 hours that he suffered during the course of his passion beginning with the moment when he said goodbye to his mother that is before instituting the eucharist and ending with the moment when jesus was buried in every hour of his passion our lord invites us to accompany him and bring him consolation with our love this way little by little as we enter into every scene every word every truth and every suffering we will begin to understand just how great the love of god has been for us and it will be impossible for us not to desire to love him as much he deserves to be loved by us this book offers the first translation of the homily on the passion of christ attributed to the armenian historian elishe the homily rephrases the biblical narrative from the last supper to the ascension with rhetorical expansions a final section describes the subsequent preaching of the apostles elishe is the author of one of the great classics of early armenian literature the history of vardan and the armenian war and to him are also ascribed various other works including a commentary on genesis and numerous homilies the notes to the english rendering indicate parallels with other armenian texts both original armenian works and early translations into armenian the introduction places the theology of the homily in its armenian context in this wonderful meditation book perfect for lent or any time of the year the great spiritual writer and monk presents profound short reflections on gospel passages about the passion and death of christ each chapter focusing on a specific aspect of the passion of our lord gives a prayer a meditation and spiritual advice and closes with another short prayer amazon first published in 1833 the dolorous passion of our lord jesus christ was the principal extrabiblical source for mel gibson s blockbuster 2004 movie the passion of the christ which grossed over 600 million in worldwide box office to write the work goethe friend and author clemens brentano spent six years at the bedside of 19th century augustinian nun anne catherine emmerich recording her spectacular visions of the life passion crucifixion and resurrection of jesus christ in addition to being a visionary emmerich was an ecstatic stigmatic and inediatic after she died in 1824 brentano spent nine years organizing his notes on the renowned nun s visions of the passion and crucifixion before publishing them as the dolorous passion the book soon outsold even goethe in germany and became an international best seller the book was all but forgotten until resurrected by gibson for his classic movie about the passion the original work is published here in its entirety in english translation in a 100 page introduction to the original work author noel griese recounts how the book came to be written and details more than 40 scenes in the gibson movie based on anne catherine emmerich s visions rather than biblical accounts he also discusses the history of passion devotionals in the introduction experiencing the passion of christ will give you a front row seat as christ s life unfolds you will be placed on the scene confronted up close with the painful events of the cross but you will also see the majestic glory found in the rest of the story although forgotten until quite recently caryll houselander who died in 1954 was a sensitive and profound english roman catholic writer on christian spirituality in this critical edition of her 1949 book the passion of the infant christ houselander argues that the physical world is an inscaped revelation of the mind of the creator every concrete object and every temporal event mirrors the eternal just as the circumstances surrounding the birth of jesus mirror the circumstances surrounding his death and resurrection editor kerry walters discusses both houselander's life and the primary themes of the passion of the infant christ in his introduction to this critical edition of one of houselander's most insightful books explore the love of christ by diving deep into his passion and death the passion of the christ has touched millions of hearts since its release in 2004 it has been called the most powerful film ever produced about the life and death of jesus yet despite its visual and emotional impact the dramatic events portrayed do not explain themselves they often give rise to perplexing questions why did jesus need to die what is the point behind the haunting demonic scenes what do we know of the soldier who pierces jesus' side a guide to the passion 100 questions about the passion of the christ offers a fascinating and enlightening insight into the meaning of christ's passion explaining how his death was not a defeat but the beginning of a great victory deepen your journey into the unforgettable film the passion of the christ in this authorized behind the scenes look at the movie fr john bartunek l c provides biblical historical and theological insights gleaned from hours spent on the set and interviews with the director actors and filmmaking crew inside the passion is the most complete and thorough commentary on the movie you will read the stations of the cross and the stations of the passion as observed in jerusalem have been added saint augustine says that there is nothing more conducive to the attainment of eternal salvation than to think every day on the pains which jesus christ has suffered for the love of us nothing is more salutary than to think daily on what the man god has endured for us and before him origen said that sin cannot reign in the soul that frequently meditates on the death of the saviour it is certain that when the death of christ is carried about in the soul sin cannot reign in it besides our lord revealed to a holy solitary that there is no exercise better calculated to kindle in the heart the fire of divine love than the meditation of his passion hence father balthazar alvarez used to say that ignorance of the treasures we have in the passion of jesus christ is the ruin of christians hence he would tell his penitents that they should not consider themselves to have done anything until they had succeeded in always keeping in the heart jesus crucified according to st bonaventure the wounds of jesus are wounds which soften the hardest hearts and inflame the most frozen souls o vulnera exclaimed the saint corda saxea vulnerantia et mentes congelatas inflammantia with the release of the passion of christ in 2004 mel gibson brought the sobering story of jesus christ to the big screen grossing over 600 million dollars it became the highest grossing non english film of all time visually and emotionally draining audiences flocked to the theaters to get a fresh view of the significance of the cross the film reminds viewers of the severity and savageness of the gospel it forces the question on audiences what if this is true the claim of christ is unlike any man made religion ever created fully man fully god crucified raised again it's preposterous it's insane it's passionate but what if it's true raised in the church jason shick knew the story he believed the story but the passion of the christ made the sacrifice personal it burnt brutal images as reminders of christ's suffering into his memory this book is an attempt to digest the film and help others embrace christ's passion in their own lives it was written with the small group in mind but would be a great individual study as well how passionate are you living how passionate is your faith we serve a passionate god who loves us with a passion we can't even imagine he offers passionate grace and passionate love to each one of us so begin embracing the passion of christ today anne catherine emmerich was an augustinian nun recognized as the recipient of many mystic gifts and vision she is believed to have received the full stigmata of which she reported suffering the physical effects of jesus' punctured hands feet side and forehead moved by her religious piety german poet clemens brentano was inspired to document her ordeal brentano spent many months with anne catherine as she dictated the details of her encounters which brentano later compiled into the book the dolorous passion of our lord jesus christ in this book anne catherine's visions of christ's agony and death are documented in unimaginable detail while anne catherine's sacred wounds were witnessed by many during her time the highly poetical and extravagant imagery in brentano's book have led scholars to believe that brentano may have embellished her descriptions as he recorded them consequently this account of anne catherine's visions should be appreciated for its meditative value rather than for its historical accuracy the filmmaker mel gibson for his film the passion of the christ was also inspired by the diaries of emmerich
