the ideas underlying benn s ausdruckswelt not only anticipate and parallel many of the assumptions now current in recent trends in literary criticism they also disclose their ultimate limitations benn s poetics were founded on the intellectual crises of the early years of the twentieth century following nietzschean leads benn sought to achieve in his person and his work a return to a primitive archetypal mode of perception which he felt would restore a purer more natural mentality to modern man whom he portrayed as being far ahead of his syntax by focusing on benn s early expressionist prose and what this study calls his fictive self the author traces the relationship between benn s weltanschauung and later critical theory building upon the latest scholarship she analyses benn s poetics as precursor of certain postmodernist ideas concerning language meaning and polysemy aesthetics personal identity authorial intention versus reader reception intertextuality and the role of art in society by paying specific attention to the concept of the autonomous self and its relation to language this study demonstrates that gottfried benn s aesthetic theories do not represent the end of german expressionism but rather the beginning of the present post modernist period investigates through a critical exploration of derrida s political thought the foundations of modern secular discourse in relation to issues of race and colonialism a resource to help judges lawyers scholars and students gain insight into the real lives of women whom the law purports to represent but whose self representations have historically been excluded from legal discourse what role does scripture play in the task of the church what value do past theological constructs offer today how does culture affect theological reflection in this book the authors move past the enlightenment foundational approach to offer a methodology for doing theology in a postmodern age writing for readers of all denominations they propose a new theological method that uses three sources the spirit speaking authoritatively through the biblical text tradition providing a historical interpretative framework and culture as the context for constructive theological reflection this method they argue fosters a christian theology that acknowledges the whole of god father son and spirit takes full account of the experience of the faith community and is future oriented
