finalist for the philip k dick and arthur c clarke awards the gripping first novel by drew magary author of the hike and the night the lights went out an exciting page turner drew magary is an excellent writer the postmortal is even more terrifying than zombie apocalypse mark frauenfelder boing boing john farrell is about to get the cure old age can never kill him now the only problem is everything else still can imagine a near future where a cure for aging is discovered and after much political and moral debate made available to people worldwide immortality however comes with its own unique problems including evil green people government euthanasia programs a disturbing new religious cult and other horrors witty eerie and full of humanity the postmortal is an unforgettable thriller that envisions a pre apocalyptic world so real that it is completely terrifying the hike just works it's like early good chuck palahniuk magary underhands a twist in at the end that hits you like a sharp jab at the bell it's just that good npr.org a page turner inventive funny quietly profound and touching boingboing from the author of the night the lights went out and the postmortal a fantasy saga unlike any you've read before weaving elements of folk tales and video games into a riveting unforgettable adventure of what a man will endure to return to his family when ben a suburban family man takes a business trip to rural pennsylvania he decides to spend the afternoon before his dinner meeting on a short hike once he sets out into the woods behind his hotel he quickly comes to realize that the path he has chosen cannot be given up easily with no choice but to move forward ben finds himself falling deeper and deeper into a world of man eating giants bizarre demons and colossal insects on a quest of epic life or death proportions ben finds help comes in some of the most unexpected forms including a profane crustacean and a variety of magical objects tools and potions desperate to return to his family ben is determined to track down the producer the creator of the world in which he is being held hostage and the only one who can free him from the path at once bitingly funny and emotionally absorbing magary's novel is a remarkably unique addition to the contemporary fantasy genre one that draws as easily from the world of classic folk tales as it does from video games in the hike magary takes readers on a daring odyssey away from our day to day grind and transports them into an enthralling world propelled by heart imagination and survival it s a doozie set in a science fictional universe where climate change is fixed but people get killed via teleportation a young woman named anna huff has to navigate her adolescence and a murder mystery it has a little bit of all the genres you love in combinations you ve never imagined and it s easily the funniest thing we ve read this year so far gq drew magary s first posthumous novel is so good it s about big tech weird futures growing up and intriguingly for us the absurdity of on demand global travel roads and kingdoms when the corporate monolith portsys brought porting to the masses ceo emilia kirsch and her son jason accomplished what every other startup company had failed to deliver they really did change the world they reversed climate change they created a multitrillion dollar industry out of thin air curing economic woes across the globe they made it so that anyone could be anywhere simply by touching a screen including the man who murdered sarah huff now sarah s 17 year old sister anna is determined to hunt the bastard down but there are a few problems she doesn t know who the killer is or where in the world he may be at any given moment also she s stuck at prestigious druskin academy where portphones are banned and any student who attempts to port off campus is immediately expelled it gets stickier anna s also fallen in love with her dazzling new roommate who just so happens to be emilia kirsch s daughter lara the dean of students wants anna dead perhaps literally and she has only two friends to confide in one a reckless alcoholic and the other a bizarre fussbudget oh and now she also needs to find lara who has mysteriously disappeared from campus from the author of the postmortal and the hike comes his most deliriously entertaining novel yet point b is the story of one clever and occasionally determined young woman seeking both love and vengeance but hardly ready for those two missions to intersect it takes you to vietnam hollywood singapore tokyo inland mexico oxford the maldives cuba the coast of northeast australia and all points beyond you will find yourself plunged into a borderless chaotic oddly miraculous world that is ruled by a single bloodless corporation and by a family determined to keep it that way but portsys never expected anna huff and anna huff never expected love to make her this daring a fascinating darkly funny comeback story of learning to live with a broken mind after a near fatal traumatic brain injury from the acclaimed author of the hike drew magary has produced a remarkable account of his journey one that is filled with terror tenderness beauty and grace david grann bestselling author of killers of the flower moon drew magary fan favorite defector and former deadspin columnist is known for his acerbic takes and his surprisingly nuanced chronicling of his own life but in the night the lights went out he finds himself far out of his depths on the night of the 2018 deadspin awards he suffered a mysterious fall that caused him to smash his head so hard on a cement floor that he cracked his skull in three places and suffered a catastrophic brain hemorrhage for two weeks he remained in a coma the world was gone to him and him to it in his long recovery from his injury including understanding what his family and friends went through as he lay there dying coming to terms with his now permanent disabilities and trying to find some lesson in this cosmic accident he leaned on the one sure thing that he knows and that didn t leave him his writing drew takes a deep dive into what it meant to be a bystander to his own death and figuring out who this new drew is a drew that doesn t walk as well doesn t taste or smell or see or hear as well and a drew that is often failing as a husband and a father as he bounces between grumpiness irritability and existential fury but what s a good comeback story without heartbreak eager to get back what he lost drew experiences an awakening of a whole other kind in this incredibly funny medically illuminating and heartfelt memoir
