the apostle john pushed aside the incense i will not make your sacrifice he announced to the roman tribune there is one god and his name is not domitian standing next to john at the stone altar of the emperor s temple were other believers including asia s most wealthy citizen abraham of ephesus and his family will abraham follow john s example if he refuses to make the sacrifice the shipping magnate s vast fortune will be confiscated by rome and he will either be executed or exiled to patmos devil s island this exciting historical novel follows abraham and his family as they make their choice to worship ceasar or follow christ and it brings to life the days when christians faced the lions in rome s coliseum and when the exiled apostle received the great visions of revelation previously published in hardcover 90785267875 since at least the high point of the civil rights movement african american christianity has been widely recognized as a potent force for social change most attention to the political significance of black churches however focuses on domestic protest and electoral politics yet some black churches take a deep interest in the global issue of israel and palestine why would african american christians get involved and even take sides in palestine and israel and what does that reveal about the political significance of the black church today this book examines african american christian involvement in israel and palestine to show how competing visions of the black church are changing through transnational political engagement considering cases ranging from african american christian zionists to palestinian solidarity activists roger baumann traces how black religious politics transcend domestic arenas and enter global spaces these cases he argues illuminate how the meaning of the ostensibly singular and unifying category of the black church spanning its history identity culture and mission is deeply contested at every turn black visions of the holy land offers new insights into how black churches understand their political role and social significance the ways race religion and politics both converge and diverge and why the meaning of overlapping racial and religious identities shifts when moving from national to global contexts why is the middle east in such turmoil is the modern state of israel in the plan of god can and should christians do more than pray for israel does god s word contain instructions to christians regarding the treatment of jewish people in the near thirty years john hagee has been a lover of israel he has grappled with each of these questions most christians today don t know much about the jewish faith or the history of the jewish nation they don t understand what is truly at stake in the middle east conflict and why christians need to do more than just pray for the peace of jerusalem they don t know the role they ve been called to play in relationship with israel and they aren t sure how god feels about israel today either as hagee guides readers through the scriptures that explain why christians need to stand with israel and the jews today with as much fervor as god does they will encounter a man deeply passionate about loving this historic people of god they ll be inspired to take up that same mantle of love and play a part in extending acceptance and favor to the people of israel just as god has called them to do the six day war in 1967 profoundly influenced how an increasing number of religious zionists saw israeli victory as the manifestation of god's desire to redeem god's people thousands of religious israelis joined the gush emunim movement in 1974 to create settlements in territories occupied in the war however over time the israeli government decided to return territory to palestinian or arab control this was perceived among religious zionist circles as a violation of god's order the peak of this process came with the disengagement plan in 2005 in which israel demolished all the settlements in the gaza strip and four settlements in the west bank this process raised difficult theological questions among religious zionists this book explores the internal mechanism applied by a group of religious zionist rabbis in response to their profound disillusionment with the state reflected in an increase in religious radicalization due to the need to cope with the feelings of religious and messianic failure in our sports saturated culture we are all familiar with the two minute warning a signal to players and coaches that the game is nearing the end 120 clicks left on the clock to attempt any last minute stratagem that will determine victory or defeat god's two minute warning is a collection of 33 vignettes by pastor john hagee weaving together biblical passages with dramatic life changing stories on meaningful topics in the 1990s many evangelical christian organizations and church leaders began to acknowledge their long history of racism and launched efforts at becoming more inclusive of people of color while much of this racial reconciliation movement has not directly confronted systemic racism s structural causes there exists a smaller countermovement within evangelicalism primarily led by women of color who are actively engaged in antiracism and social justice struggles in unreconciled andrea smith examines these movements through a critical ethnic studies lens evaluating the varying degrees to which evangelical communities that were founded on white supremacy have addressed racism drawing on evangelical publications sermons and organization statements as well as ethnographic fieldwork and participation in evangelical events smith shows how evangelicalism is largely unable to effectively challenge white supremacy due to its reliance upon discourses of whiteness at the same time the work of progressive evangelical women of color not only demonstrates that evangelical christianity can be an unexpected place in which to find theoretical critique and social justice organizing but also shows how critical ethnic studies interventions can be applied broadly across political and religious divides outside the academy
