seminar paper from the year 2007 in the subject politics topic development politics grade keine graduate institute masterstudies institut universitaire d'études du développement genf course coopération internationale au développement language english abstract the speech of former president of the united states harry s truman in 1949 for the foundation of the nato has often also been seen as the beginning of the whole development aid engagement in his clear words in addition we will provide military advice and equipment to free nations which will cooperate with us in the maintenance of peace and security fourth we must embark on a bold new program for making the benefits of our scientific advances and industrial progress available for the improvement and growth of underdeveloped areas although the international system changed dramatically old enemies vanished whereas new ones arose the issue of security is still and since september 9 11 will be an even more essential topic within the discussion of development it is to be noted that this close linkage between development and security has always had an impact on the behavior of the donor community and is now once again in the focus of a debate concerning new approaches such as the security sector reform ssr and a broadening of the oda definition due to the rising demand of peace and security in the development business africa in global power play debates challenges and potential reforms is a compilation of insightful and analytical articles that were published in different issues of the journal african renaissance between 2004 and 2006 most of the articles are from established academics researchers development practitioners and policymakers as well as stakeholders in africa though the perspectives are as varied as the contributions the underlining themes are the current scramble for africa and the various development trajectories vis à vis those of other regions of the world contributors also address the continuous interactions and inevitable contradictions between africa and the rest of the world the various contributions seek answers to a number of fundamental questions around africa s position in the global political economy focusing on such areas as international economic relations political and economic reforms democratic transitions and consolidations human rights and security though contributions show that africa faces enormous challenges in the global political economy they also point to the current dynamism and optimism in many parts of the continent bhekinkosi moyo is currently based in dakar senegal where he conducts and manages research for trustafrica a grant making foundation focusing on regional integration peace and security as well as citizenship and identity his research interests include africa s political economy international political economy global governance social movements and democratisation in africa his recent publications include china in africa threat or an asset 2006 the zimbabwean community in south africa with elinor sisulu and nkosinathi tshuma and africa and the world 2004 2005 this book is a compelling study of the many imponderable dilemmas challenges and imperatives that shape the contours of africa s place in a mercurial and uncertain global order it brings together a range of authors who reflect on the many themes that animate the african condition in the context of the multiple centrifugal tendencies intense structural asymmetries and disempowering pathologies that characterise globalisation africa in global power play is an invitation to critically engage in this existential debate and is a sterling contribution to the subject dr garth le pere director institute for global dialogue south africa both europe and the us have now dampened the shrillness of the invective hurled against each other over the last years but the underlying differences have not been resolved the two sides drift apart in their views on what internal politics should achieve as well as in their vision of the global order they would like to see established the economies of both europe and the us are highly developed and densely interwoven their societies are post industrial many social and economic trends converge similar too are the challenges to maintain security against threats emanating from other parts of the world divergences thus do not originate from conflicting material interests they arise from different perceptions of the nature and of threats from the outside world from how the two societies wish to define themselves through their internal and external policies the search for a distinct european or american identity fuels this discord therefore appeals to common merely material interests will not obliterate it the contributions to this book come from altogether twelve authors each of them addressing the issues from the perspective of his or her own discipline the book aims to reach not just academia but also beyond to those that are involved in actual international decision making
