from the introductory for several years prior to my tour of palestine in 1902 i had noted with interest the accounts in books on biblical antiquities of the holy scroll at nablus this manuscript containing the pentateuch is believed to be the oldest manuscript in existence of any portion of the bible as the priests show it with great reluctance and are supposed to exhibit it even to their own people only once a year on the day of atonement i was anxious that they should not substitute for it at the time of my visit the more recent parchment which on ordinary occasions they display my friend mr e k warren chairman of the world s sunday school convention committee of arrangements had visited palestine the year before and had seen the ancient scroll he gave me a letter of introduction to the high priest written on his business letter head which rather formidable looking document i found of service on my arrival in nablus the samaritan pentateuch sp is the sacred scripture of the samaritans a tenacious religious community made famous by jesus good samaritan story that persists to this day not so widely known is the impact of the sp outside the samaritan community recently there has been a resurgence of interest in this scripture as evidenced by several translations of the sp as well as reference in qumran scroll studies to the sp or an sp like tradition in an effort to describe some of the textual evidence present in the scrolls this volume presents a general introduction to and overview of the sp suitable for a course text and as a reference tool for the professional scholar
